THE ROAR RESTORED

BUILDING THE FOUNDATION

The story of the 2006 American League Champion Detroit Tigers began well before the season opened in Kansas City on April 3. Before pitchers like Justin Verlander and Joel Zumaya unleashed triple-digit fastballs and even before Magglio Ordonez blasted a Huston Street delivery deep into the Detroit night, sending the city into a frenzy. The story of 2006 began when the Tigers started acquiring the players who would become household names as the magical season continued. Players acquired through the draft, like Curtis Granderson, Brandon Inge, Verlander and Zumaya. Others who were signed as free agents, like Todd Jones, Ordonez, Ivan Rodriguez and Kenny Rogers. Still others were acquired through trades, like Jeremy Bonderman, Carlos Guillen, Placido Polanco and Nate Robertson. While they all took different paths to the Tigers, they were guided by a new leader in 2006. Jim Leyland was hired as the 36th manager in club history following the 2005 season and came to the club with a championship pedigree. The combination of a talented group of players and the steady hand of a seasoned veteran manager combined to provide a thrill ride that the fans of Detroit will not soon forget.

STORMING OUT OF THE GATES

The first few games of the 2006 season suggested that things might be a little different for the Tigers. A victory on Opening Day against the Kansas City Royals, keyed by a few clutch outs from flamethrowing rookie Joel Zumaya, led to a few more victories. First baseman Chris Shelton re-wrote the club's historic record books with a prolific power display that saw him belt nine home runs in the first 13 games. While the club jumped out to a hot start, fans were still somewhat cautiously optimistic. Manager Jim Leyland stressed that he just wanted his team to go out and play hard every night. His message became a motto for the club as they battled each and every night.

NINE HARD INNINGS

Leyland's message had sunk in with the team. "Nine Hard Innings" was a phrase that could be routinely heard throughout the clubhouse during post-game interviews. The dividends were paying off. A thrilling walk-off victory over the Cincinnati Reds on May 20. An impressive come-from-behind victory against the Royals on May 25 and a slew of other games that began to stir the confidence of the Tigers faithful. As the season wore on and the Tigers remained near the top of the American League Central, fans began to pack Comerica Park. The faith of the fans paid off as the club clinched its first playoff birth since 1987 by claiming the American League Wild Card with a victory over the Kansas City Royals at Kauffman Stadium on September 24.

A HISTORIC MATCHUP

The Tigers matched up with the New York Yankees in the American League Division Series, marking the first time the two historic clubs met in post-season play. The Tigers dropped the first game of the series, but stormed back to win the next three games and win the series. Kenny Rogers keyed the Tigers effort with 7.2 scoreless innings in Game Three and Jeremy Bonderman helped shut the door by limiting the Yankees to two runs over 8.1 innings of work in the decisive Game Four at Comerica Park. Carlos Guillen led the Tigers with a .571 batting average during the series, while Curtis Granderson and Craig Monroe each blasted two home runs.

HEADING WEST

Following the series victory over the Yankees, the Tigers headed west to battle the Oakland Athletics in the American League Championship Series. The Tigers won the first two games of the series at McAfee Coliseum and headed back to Comerica Park in control of the series. Another 7.1 scoreless innings from Rogers in Game Three led the Tigers to victory and set the stage for a historic moment. With the score tied at three in the ninth inning, Magglio Ordonez blasted a three-run, walk-off home run against Athletics closer Huston Street to propel the Tigers to the World Series and set off a celebration in the city. Following the victory, second baseman Placido Polanco was named the Most Valuable Player of the ALCS as he batted .529 during the series.

WORLD SERIES BOUND

Following the historic home run, the Tigers were slated for a matchup with the National League Champion St. Louis Cardinals in the World Series. The Cardinals would go on to win the series in five games, but not without some noteworthy moments. Kenny Rogers tossed eight scoreless innings to lead the Tigers to victory in Game Two, raising his playoff total to 23.0 scoreless innings and marking the most since Jerry Reuss tossed 23.0 consecutive scoreless innings in the 1981 post-season. Sean Casey led the Tigers with a .529 batting average and two home runs during the series, while Craig Monroe also belted two home runs. Monroe finished the post-season with five home runs, marking the most ever by a Tigers player in a single post-season.

OVER 100 SEASONS OF TIGERS BASEBALL

MODEST BEGINNINGS

Joining Boston, Chicago and Cleveland as the only charter members of the American League, the Tigers history actually pre-dates the beginnings of the league itself. Detroit professional baseball dates to 1881 when the city sported a franchise, known alternately as the Wolverines or simply the Detroits, for the first of eight seasons in the National League. One of those clubs, the 1887 entry, won the league's title and went on to take 10-of-15 games from the American Association champion St. Louis club in a cross-country playoff series.

After the National League club moved to Cleveland following the 1888 season, the city was home to various minor league clubs through 1900. It was during this time, however, that the foundation for today's Tigers was laid.

In 1894, baseball legend Ban Johnson, who later would go on to serve 27 years as the American League's first President, awarded Detroit a slot in the reorganized Western League. It was a significant move because just six years later Johnson changed the name to the American League and gained major league status for the circuit in 1901.

It was also in those early years that the Detroit baseball club first became known as the Tigers. Some baseball historians credited Philip J. Reid, editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. The team's manager that same season, George Stallings, also took credit for initiating the nickname because, he said, the black-and-brown stockings he put on his players reminded the fans of "Tiger Stripes."

Tigers pitcher Mickey Lolich celebrates Detroit's Game 7 World Series victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in 1968.

It appears, however, that the name dates back one year earlier, a year before Stallings became manager, and has been credited to an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press.

"Strouther's Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely" read a headline in the paper on April 16, 1895. The same page also listed a series of baseball notes, headed by "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." The name caught on, and the Detroit Tigers were officially christened.

Under Johnson's leadership, the American League in 1901 declared that it would conduct business as a major league. Unlike predecessors such as the Union Association, the fledgling league would not only survive but thrive, and the Detroit Tigers played a major role as the game took on its modern shape.

TIGERS DEBUT, COBB EMERGES

On April 24, 1901, the Tigers prepared to take to the field for their first official American League game. A standing room only crowd was anticipated at Bennett Park, but unpredictable weather postponed the opening by a day.

On that historic afternoon in front of 10,000 fans, the Tigers entered the ninth inning trailing Milwaukee, 13-4. A series of hits and miscues followed, moving the score to 13-12 with two runners on. With two out, Tiger Frank "Pop" Dillon faced reliever Bert Husting, and the lefthanded hitter rapped a two-run double to complete a 14-13 comeback win.

The 1905 season was a remarkable one for the organization in that it marked the first in a Detroit uniform for Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the most famous Tiger of all. Acquired in exchange for pitcher Eddie Cicotte and $700 from Augusta of the Sally League (plus an additional $50 for "immediate delivery"), Cobb played the first of his 3,033 major league games on August 30, 1905. He would remain with the Tigers for 22 years, and when he retired in 1928, he had collected more records than any player in major league history.

The 1907 season saw the emergence of two individuals, neither of them players, who would both play significant roles in turning the fortunes of the young Tigers. One was Frank Navin, who began as a bookkeeper with the franchise in 1902 before acquiring a full half interest ownership in the club and becoming team president. After Ban Johnson's retirement in 1927, Navin came to be regarded by many as the most powerful man in the American League.

The other was Hughie Jennings, a keen judge of talent who would lead the club to three consecutive league championships as one of the most colorful managers in major league history.

ONE STEP AWAY

That same 1907 season, the Tigers won their first pennant, taking the American League by one and one-half games with a mark of 92-58. A disappointing loss to the Cubs in the World Series followed.

The next two years the Tigers repeated their regular-season successes, winning league titles both seasons. Like 1907, however, the club was defeated by

Chicago and Pittsburgh, respectively, in the Fall Classic.

It would be years before the Tigers would have an opportunity to erase the memories of their post-season struggles in World Series play. The period from 1910-34, however, is not lacking of historical interest as it featured some remarkably talented teams and individuals that came up just a little shy of taking the next step.

In 1911, Cobb finished with a personal-best batting average of .420, finishing just short of the all-time American League single-season record of .422 set by Nap Lajoie in 1901. In 1912, the club moved into its new ballpark, named after Frank Navin, but the campaign was marked by a one-game players' strike in retaliation for a suspension levied on Cobb for taking a punch at a fan in New York. The May 18 strike forced the Tigers to put together a team of sandlot players for one game, a 24-2 loss at Philadelphia.

Three seasons later in 1915, Jennings and his club posted a regular-season record of 100-54, yet the skipper remembered the campaign as "the biggest disappointment" of his career after Babe Ruth's Red Sox claimed the pennant with 101 wins. The following season marked the beginning of the career of first baseman Harry Heilmann, a future Hall-of-Famer who would spend 15 years in Detroit, while 1917 saw the end of 15 seasons in the Tiger outfit for fellow Cooperstown inductee Sam Crawford.

By 1920, the Tigers had plunged to seventh place, Jennings was released and the managerial position fell into the hands of Cobb. The highlight of Cobb's tenure was 1924, the same season that Hall-of-Famer Charlie Gehring first wore the Tiger uniform, when the club remained in the race until the season's final week with a record of 86-68.

After a sixth-place finish in 1926, Cobb drew his release from Detroit and concluded his career with two more seasons in Philadelphia and an all-time major league record .367 career batting average.

From 1927 through 1932, the club placed no higher than fourth in the league standings. Highlights of the era included the arrival of Hank Greenberg, who played 12 of his 13 seasons in Detroit and found his way to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

After five seasons with Bucky Harris at the helm, Navin attempted to hire Babe Ruth as manager in 1934. Unable to land him, Navin turned to Mickey Cochrane, purchased from Philadelphia for $100,000. With Cochrane as catcher/manager, the Tigers soared to a 101-53 record in 1934 for the first of two consecutive league pennants. Schoolboy Rowe set a record with 16 consecutive pitching wins, but in the World Series the Tigers once again failed to capture the post-season magic, dropping a seven-game decision to Frankie Frisch's St. Louis Cardinals in a series that featured Commissioner Landis removing St. Louis outfielder Ducky Medwick from Game 7 for his own safety as Detroit fans pelted the field with debris.

"Hometown Hero" Willie Horton launches another of his 262 home runs hit during his Detroit Tigers career.

BREAKING THROUGH IN "PRINCE"-LY FASHION

The following season, the long-awaited title dreams came true for Tiger fans and players. After winning the American League by three games, Detroit took six games to mow down the Chicago Cubs in the 1935 World Series, with Cochrane making a daring dash from second in the ninth inning of Game Six to score the winning run on a single by Goose Goslin. For their accomplishments, each player was awarded a share of $6,544.

On November 13, 1935, Frank Navin was stricken by a heart ailment and died at the age of 64. Walter Briggs Sr., already half-owner of the club, purchased the remainder of the team and became president.

In 1940 under manager Del Baker, Detroit earned its sixth pennant with a 90-64 mark and faced Cincinnati in the Fall Classic. A 21-game winner in the regular season, righthander Bobo Newsom pitched the Tigers to wins in two games of the Series but fell in Game Seven as the Reds won the title.

A strange end to the 1945 season marked the Tigers' successful surge to their eventual second World Series title. With little hope of making it to the post-season, the Washington Senators scheduled their season to close a week early to make their park available for pro football. The Senators, however, played inspired baseball all the way but were forced to sit and watch during the season's final week as the Tigers nosed them out of a pennant. In the ensuing World Series, the Tigers, managed by Steve O'Neill, knocked off the Cubs in seven games, with Hall-of-Famer "Prince Hal" Newhouser winning two times.

After a pair of second-place finishes in 1946 and '47 and the acquisition of Hall-of-Famer George Kell, the Tigers watched as a fresh influx of talent from the minors matured and nearly captured the 1950 pennant, falling just three games short after leading the pack for 119 days and finishing with a 95-59 record.

A NEW ERA IN TIGERTOWN

The 1950s were highlighted by the emergence of young outfielder Al Kaline who, with a .340 batting average in 1955, became the youngest player in league history to win a batting title.

The Tiger front office was also seeing sweeping change after the death of Briggs Sr. in 1952. After a four-year presidency by his son, Walter Briggs Jr., the Briggs stock was sold to a syndicate of 11 radio/television executives led by John Fetzer, Fred Knorr and Kenyon Brown. In 1960, Fetzer purchased the entire team and became entrenched as club president.

After finishing just one game out of first place in 1967, the Tigers were poised and loaded with talent entering the 1968 campaign. Under manager Mayo Smith, the club took the lead on May 10 and never relinquished it, finishing 12 games ahead of second-place Baltimore. Denny McLain was the hero of the campaign with a 31-6 record, becoming the first pitcher since Lefty Grove in 1934 (and remaining the last currently) to win 30 or more in a season. His efforts earned McLain unanimous acclaim as MVP and Cy Young winner in the league.

In a tight World Series, Mickey Lolich pitched the club to three wins, the final win coming on just two days rest as the Tigers captured the crown.

With divisional play starting in 1969, the Tigers next visited the post-season by winning the American League East in 1972 under Billy Martin with a 92-70 mark. The club was unable to capture the pennant, however, as the Oakland A's won the best-of-five series in five games.

The late 1970s featured the first of an American League record 1,918 appearances together by Tiger middle infielders Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker.

The 1979 season saw another significant change in leadership when on June 14, Sparky Anderson took over the club's managerial reigns. For the next 16 seasons, Anderson would lead the Tigers from the dugout, claiming two division titles and a World Championship along the way.

TEAM OF THE '80s

After a second-place finish in 1983, success was expected for a talented Tiger club the following season. With Jack Morris tossing his first no-hitter on April 7 of 1984, the club vaulted into the division lead by winning its first nine games and going 35-5 through May 24, the best 40-game start in major league history. The Tigers went on to a 104-58 mark, 15 games in front of the pack, and continued by sweeping the Royals in the Championship Series. After defeating the Padres, four-games-to-one, in the World Series, the Tigers became the first major league team since the 1955 Dodgers to hold first place wire-to-wire and finish by winning the championship. In addition, a club-record 2,704,794 fans passed through the turnstiles.

The Tigers returned to glory in 1987 in dramatic fashion. The club struggled to an 11-19 start but closed strong and looked ready to make a move after first-place Toronto lost four straight entering the final weekend of play. Trailing the Blue Jays by just one game with a three-game set in Motown against Toronto to close the regular season, the Tigers took the first two. With a one-game lead, Detroit's Frank Tanana out-dued the Jays' Jimmy Key on Sunday as Larry Herndon's solo homer proved the only scoring in a 1-0 triumph. After the dramatic regular season finale, Detroit bowed out of the playoffs to Minnesota, losing a best-of-seven series in five games.

REBUILDING A PROUD FRANCHISE

The 1992 season included the most recent change in ownership for the team as Mike Ilitch purchased sole interest in the team from Tom Monaghan, and other structural changes were not far down the road.

Following many years of planning and hard work, the Tigers said goodbye to Tiger Stadium following the 1999 season and opened Comerica Park for the 2000 season. A sellout crowd braved a blustery and damp afternoon on April 11, 2000 to see the Tigers defeat the Seattle Mariners 5-2 in the first game at Comerica Park. Many fans would follow suit during the 2000 season, as the Tigers drew more than 2.5 million fans for the team's highest home attendance since 1984.

The Tigers took another step towards building a winner with the hiring of David Dombrowski as team president and chief executive officer on November 5, 2001. Dombrowski came to the team as one of the most respected and highly regarded executives in baseball and he has already made his mark on the organization with a number of decisions that are geared to restore pride to the Olde English D and return the Tigers to their rightful place among the elite in the American League. On April 8, 2002, Dombrowski took on more responsibility in the Tigers rebuilding effort when he assumed the duties of general manager. The Tigers took another step towards returning to their elite status in American League with the hiring of Jim Leyland as the 36th manager in club history on October 4, 2005. Leyland's hiring marked his return to the club that originally signed him as a minor league catcher on September 21, 1963. In his first season with the club, Leyland led the Tigers to an American League Championship, marking his fifth career post-season appearance.

Kirk Gibson rips his second home run in Game 5 to seal the Tigers 8-4 victory over the Padres in the 1984 World Series.

MICHAEL ILITCH

OWNER/DIRECTOR

A leader in the diverse fields of sports, entertainment and business development, Michael Ilitch enters his 15th full season as Owner/Director of the Detroit Tigers.

- Was a driving force behind the creation of the Tigers spectacular new home, Comerica Park, and contributed more than 60 percent of the financing for the $300 million facility.
- Served a key role in designing the new ballpark, bringing years of entertainment experience to the efforts that resulted in many of the features that make Comerica Park unique.
- Founded Little Caesars Pizza in 1959 with his wife, Marian...today, Little Caesars is one of the top international pizza chains with restaurants on five continents.
- Ilitch's acquisition of the Tigers on August 26, 1992 was the culmination of a long association with the club that saw him originally sign a minor league player's contract with the organization in his early 20's.
- Ilitch's playing career was cut short due to a knee injury after he batted .340 in his third season with the minor league club.
- Committed to business ventures in their hometown Detroit, the Ilitches purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982 and have built them into an elite NHL powerhouse with three Stanley Cup titles in the last nine years.
- Also purchased Olympia Entertainment, the management company for Joe Louis and Cobo Arenas.
- While many businesses were leaving Detroit's urban center, the Ilitches in 1987 purchased the neglected Fox Theatre, a 1928 landmark on the famous Woodward Avenue that had been out of regular service for nearly 17 years...with great effort, the building was restored to its original splendor and was reopened with 5,000 seats in November of 1988...in recent years, it has been the second-highest grossing theatre in the country, trailing only the famed Radio City Music Hall in New York.
- In 1989, the family further committed its efforts to reviving Detroit's downtown by relocating its suburban Little Caesars headquarters to the Fox Theatre's adjacent 10-story office building...in recent years, the area around the Fox and Comerica Park has seen significant development, including the Ilitch-owned City Theatre and Hockeytown Café.
- Created Olympia Development, L.L.C. to focus on projects in downtown Detroit...in 1999 Ilitch Holdings, Inc. was formed to provide the family's primary business interests in the food, sports and entertainment industries with technical and professional services.
- Ilitch has received Presidential Citations from three separate United States Presidents -- Bill Clinton, George Bush and Ronald Reagan for feeding the hungry through his Love Kitchen.
- Ilitch has been honored by many for his tireless efforts in Detroit and surrounding communities with many awards, including the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award from the Michigan Department of Health for promoting and demonstrating exemplary performance in advancing principles of human rights, equality and positive social change.
- In 2003, Ilitch was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame...he was inducted into both the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame in 2004.

CHRISTOPHER ILITCH

PRESIDENT & CEO, ILITCH HOLDINGS, INC.

Christopher Ilitch, president and CEO of Ilitch Holdings, Inc., directs the company that provides technical and professional services to Little Caesar Enterprises Inc., Blue Line Foodservice Distribution, Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Tigers, Champion Foods, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development, Uptown Entertainment and the Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program...total revenues for Ilitch-owned companies exceeded $1.6 billion in 2006.

- During Christopher's tenure as president of Ilitch Holdings, Ilitch-owned companies have experienced a 100 percent growth in revenues from $800 million in 2000 to $1.6 billion in 2006...Little Caesars Pizza has experienced tremendous growth and enjoys a presence throughout the United States and five continents...similarly, Blue Line Foodservice Distribution has grown into one of the largest foodservice distributors in the United States and Canada.
- In 2002, he helped guide the formation of Champion Foods, a premier food manufacturer servicing supermarkets, institutional food service, distributors and fundraising customers with private label and branded products.
- As president of the Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fundraising Program, he was responsible for the startup of the company in 1997...under his direction it has grown into one of the largest fundraising companies in the United States and Canada.
- Before 1997, Christopher served as a group vice president at Little Caesars, heading several areas including marketing, communications, research and development and new store development and he has guided the company's store growth domestically and internationally.
- Served on the host committee for the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Comerica Park and Super Bowl XL at Ford Field in 2006.
- Christopher is chairman of Ilitch Charities for Children and is on the board of directors for the Atanas Ilitch Osteosarcoma Foundation, Detroit Renaissance, Detroit Economic Club, Detroit Regional Chamber and serves as vice chairman of the Detroit Metro Convention and Visitors Bureau...he also serves as an NHL alternate governor.
- He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.
- He and his wife Kelle have two children.

DAVID DOMBROWSKI

PRESIDENT, CEO & GENERAL MANAGER

In his 29th season of professional baseball, David Dombrowski enters his sixth season with the Tigers after being named team president on November 5, 2001 and assuming the role of general manager on April 8, 2002.

- Named Baseball America's Executive of the Year in 2006 as the Tigers finished with a 95-67 record and advanced to the World Series for the first time since 1984.
- Prior to joining the Tigers, he served as the Florida Marlins president and general manager...named the Marlins first executive vice-president and general manager on September 19, 1991, and added the duties of president on March 1, 2000 as he became the third president in Marlins history.
- Was the architect of the 1997 World Series Champion Marlins...Florida became the fastest expansion club to claim a World Series title as the club was in just its fifth season.
- Florida became the first-ever expansion team to improve its record in each of its first five seasons under his guidance...the Marlins improved from sixth in the National League East in their inaugural season of 1993 (64-98, .395), to fifth in 1994 (51-64, .443), to fourth in 1995 (67-76, .469), to third in 1996 (80-82, .494) and to second in 1997 (92-70, .568).
- USA Today named the Marlins its Organization of the Year in 1998, an award presented to the team with the most and the best prospects.
- Previous to his appointment with the Marlins on September 19, 1991, he served nearly five seasons with the Montreal Expos...joined the Expos on December 5, 1986 as the director of minor league clubs before being promoted to assistant to the general manager on August 11, 1987...named vice-president/player personnel on July 5, 1988 and added general manager to his title prior to the 1990 season.
- Named the UPI Major League Executive of the Year in 1990 as Montreal finished third in the National League East with an 85-77 record.
- Montreal was twice honored as Baseball America's Organization of the Year (1988, 1990) during his tenure.
- At the time he took over the Expos in 1988, he became the youngest decision-maker in the major leagues at age 31...earned a reputation as an aggressive deal-maker as he completed 23 trades involving 62 players by the end of 1990.
- Began his career in professional baseball in January of 1978 with the Chicago White Sox as an administrative assistant in their minor league and scouting department...promoted to assistant director of player development in April of 1979...named the director of player development in February of 1981 before being promoted to assistant general manager under White Sox GM Roland Hemond in November 1981...named Chicago's vice-president of baseball operations in December of 1985.
- Recognized as the Sports Executive of the Year at the 10th annual March of Dimes National Athletic Awards dinner on February 2, 1998 at the Fox Theatre in Detroit.
- Graduated from Western Michigan University in 1978 with a degree in business administration and was the recipient of Western Michigan University's Distinguished Alumni Award in 1998...also attended Cornell University for one year where he played football...graduated from Richards High School in Oak Lawn, Illinois.
- 50 years of age...he and his wife, Karie Ross, have a daughter, Darbi Rose (3/3/98) and a son, Landon Ronald (2/8/00).

JIM DEVELLANO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Named to his position by Tigers owner Michael Ilitch on June 7, 2001.

- Provides advice and expertise for the Tigers business and marketing operations.
- Is also senior vice president of the Detroit Red Wings, a position he has held with the team since July 1990.
- Serves the Red Wings as an alternate on the NHL's Board of Governors.
- Devellano was the first individual hired by owners Mike and Marian Ilitch after they purchased the Red Wings in June 1982...is currently in his 25th season with the Red Wings.
- Owns six Stanley Cup rings (NY Islanders 1980-82, Red Wings 1997-98, 2002), as well as three Calder Cup rings with Adirondack in the American Hockey League, two Adams Cup rings in the Central Hockey League and a Riley Cup ring with Toledo in the East Coast Hockey League.
- Served as the general manager for the Red Wings for eight seasons...in his first draft as general manager, he tabbed Steve Yzerman in the 1983 Entry Draft who would become the cornerstone of the franchise...later served a second term as general manager for three seasons from 1994-97.
- Under his guidance, the Wings have been to seven conference finals (1987-88, 1995-98, 2002) and four Stanley Cup finals (1995, 1997-98, 2002)...the team has also won five President's Trophies (1995-96, 2002, 2004, 2006), six regular-season Western Conference championships (1994-96, 2002, 2004, 2006) and 12 division championships (1988-89, 1992, 1994-96, 1999, 2001-04, 2006).
- Was one of the first NHL GMs to assemble a strong European scouting staff in 1984...resulted in the production of several Red Wings standouts including Russians Sergei Federov, Slava Kozlov and Vladimir Konstantinov as well as Nicklas Lidstrom and Tomas Holmstrom, who were discovered by Devellano's Swedish scouting staff.
- His lengthy tenure as head of hockey operations for the Red Wings is second only to the 35 years served by the late Jack Adams, the Wings legendary GM credited with building the dynasty of the 1950s.
- Has been instrumental in many historic decisions in the NHL...brought the Entry Draft to the U.S. for the first time on June 13, 1987 at Joe Louis Arena...the NHL followed his suggestion for a new overtime format that includes skating four aside, one point for each team following a regulation tie and an additional point if a team wins in OT.
- Joined former Red Wings coach Scotty Bowman as a scout with St. Louis in 1967 when the NHL expanded from six teams to 12...Devellano's strong recommendation would later lead to Bowman's hiring by the Wings.
- Joined the NY Islanders as a scout in 1972 and helped build a team that won four straight Stanley Cup titles from 1980-83...was GM of the Islanders CHL farm club in Indianapolis before returning to New York in 1981 as the Islanders assistant general manager.
- The 64-year-old Devellano resides in Detroit, Toronto and Sarasota, FL.

COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD

Tom Goss

Carmen Munoz

S. Martin Taylor

Frank Torre

The Tigers Community Advisory Board was established in February 2000. The board, comprised of four individuals with a wide range of experience and philanthropy in the Greater Detroit area, was designed to work with the Tigers organization on matters related to Equal Employment Opportunities, the Diverse Business Partners Program and Tigers community relations activities, including the Tigers field renovation program, known as Tigers Fields of Champions.

TOM GOSS

- Currently Chairman of Goss LLC, The Goss Group, Inc., and Goss Logistics.
- Chairman of the Board of Directors UAHC Healthplan Tennessee.
- Vice-Chairman of the Board of United American Healthcare Corp. in Detroit, Michigan.
- Chairman of the Detroit Workforce Development Board.
- Member of the African American Experience Fund National Parks Association.
- Former University of Michigan athletic director...was a All-Big Ten tackle for the university's football team in the '60s.
- Is managing partner for The Goss Group, Inc.

CARMEN MUNOZ

- Born and raised in Detroit's Hispanic Community, she brings more than 45 years of area business and community-project experience to the board.
- Is currently Chief Executive Officer of Focus Hope Enterprises, LLC.
- She founded and operated Munoz Machine Products until it was sold, winning worldwide awards for product quality.
- She was chairperson of the Commission on Spanish Speaking Affairs for over 12 years and is past chairperson of the Detroit Empowerment Zone.
- She has been recognized nationally for her dedication to the community and expertise in the business world...selected as one of Michigan's 10 Most Influential Women by Crain's Detroit Business.
- Currently she serves as CEO of Focus Hope Enterprises.

S. MARTIN TAYLOR

- Retired Executive Vice President, Human Resources and Corporate Affairs for DTE Energy...joined Detroit Edison in 1989, toting extensive political background at the federal, state and local levels.
- Early in career, worked as a corporate attorney in Chicago and later served on cabinets of two Michigan governors.
- Is a graduate of the Detroit College of Law and Western Michigan University...received WMU's Distinguished Alumni Award in 1994.
- Elected to the University of Michigan Board of Regents in 1996, re-elected in 2004.
- Is chairman of the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation...serves on boards of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan and Fund for Detroit's Future...former president of New Detroit Inc. and past chairman of Citizen's Research Council of Michigan and the Detroit Urban League.

FRANK TORRE

- Is President and Chief Executive Officer of Torre & Bruglio Inc., the largest landscape and horticultural services company in Michigan and one of the largest in the United States.
- A self-made entrepreneur with 21 years of industry experience, Torre has served for two decades as the principal force and leader in the horticultural industry in establishing the standard of excellence in the industry.
- An active member of the civic community, Torre resides on the following boards, Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund Board, Board of Landscape Architects for the State of Michigan, Detroit Medical Center/Rehabilitation Institute of Michigan, Detroit Downtown Inc., Detroit Urban League, Oakland County Quality of Life Committee, and the advisory board for Fifth-Third Bank.
- Chairman of Boys Hope-Girls Hope of Detroit, raising over $1 million in last five years to help provide Detroit children with an education and a stable living environment; providing a long term commitment to tomorrow's leaders.
- Is a member of the Metropolitan Detroit Landscape Association, Building Owners and Managers Association, American Landscape Contractors Association, Golf Course Management Association and Legatus.

TIGERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Detroit Tigers organization, its owners, management, players and coaches are committed to providing a caring, enduring presence in our community and believe in the need to invest in our community's future. Through the Detroit Tigers Foundation and our community and public affairs department, the club supports deserving individuals and organizations in the greater Detroit area with a focus on youth, education and recreation.

Detroit Tigers Foundation

In an effort to enhance lives through the game of baseball, the Detroit Tigers established a team charity in 2005. The Detroit Tigers Foundation is affiliated with Ilitch Charities for Children, a 501(c)(3) public charity. The Foundation aids in the development and funding of innovative programs that invest in our community's future through the game of baseball. In 2006 the Foundation donated over a million dollars in grants, tickets and scholarships to charitable organizations in the greater Detroit community. For more information on the Foundation and the club's charitable activities visit www.detroittigersfoundation.com.

Ticket, Memorabilia and Party Suite Donations

Each year, nearly 2,500 charitable organizations benefit from in-kind donations from the Tigers including group tickets, autographed and game-used memorabilia and party suites.

Willie Horton Scholarship

The Tigers established the Willie Horton Scholarship in 2001, in honor of Willie Horton's accomplishments and contributions to the greater Detroit community. This scholarship, funded by the Detroit Tigers Foundation, is awarded annually to a graduating senior from Northwestern High School in Detroit, Horton's alma mater.

Player Participation

The Player Participation program is the cornerstone of the Tigers community work. Every season dozens of area organizations benefit from the dedication and caring of Tigers players and coaches. The work includes reading with students, visiting youth groups, conducting baseball clinics, visiting hospitals, serving as chairmen or spokesmen, appearing in public service announcements and much more.

Tigers Winter Caravan

The goal of the Winter Caravan is to personally connect Detroit Tigers players, coaches, broadcasters and front office staff members to our fans while supporting community events and charitable causes during a two-day bus tour. The Caravan provides an opportunity for Tigers media partners and broadcast outlets to promote Tigers baseball and the team's commitment to its community. Whether spending time at a children's hospital, elementary school, fan festival, or banquet, the caravan embodies the magic of Tigers baseball, connecting Tigers fans with their baseball heroes during the cold Michigan winter.

Education and Safety

The Detroit Tigers are proud to maintain a wide variety of programs focused on education and safety including Safety Patrol Day, Perfect Attendance Day, Gang Resistance Education and Training Day (G.R.E.A.T.) and the Jackie Robinson Memorial Art, Essay and Poetry Contest. Safety Patrol Day, a program in existence for nearly 50 years, awards Tigers tickets to students for their service to their classmates, while Perfect Attendance Day awards Tigers tickets to area middle school students with perfect attendance during a school semester. The G.R.E.A.T. program rewards students in the spring for setting goals and understanding how gangs and youth violence negatively impact their lives. In the Jackie Robinson Memorial Essay, Art and Poetry Contest middle school students are invited to create original poems, essays and works of art to honor the athlete who broke the barrier of segregation in baseball, and a social activist who fought for equal opportunities beyond the playing field.

Youth Baseball and Recreation

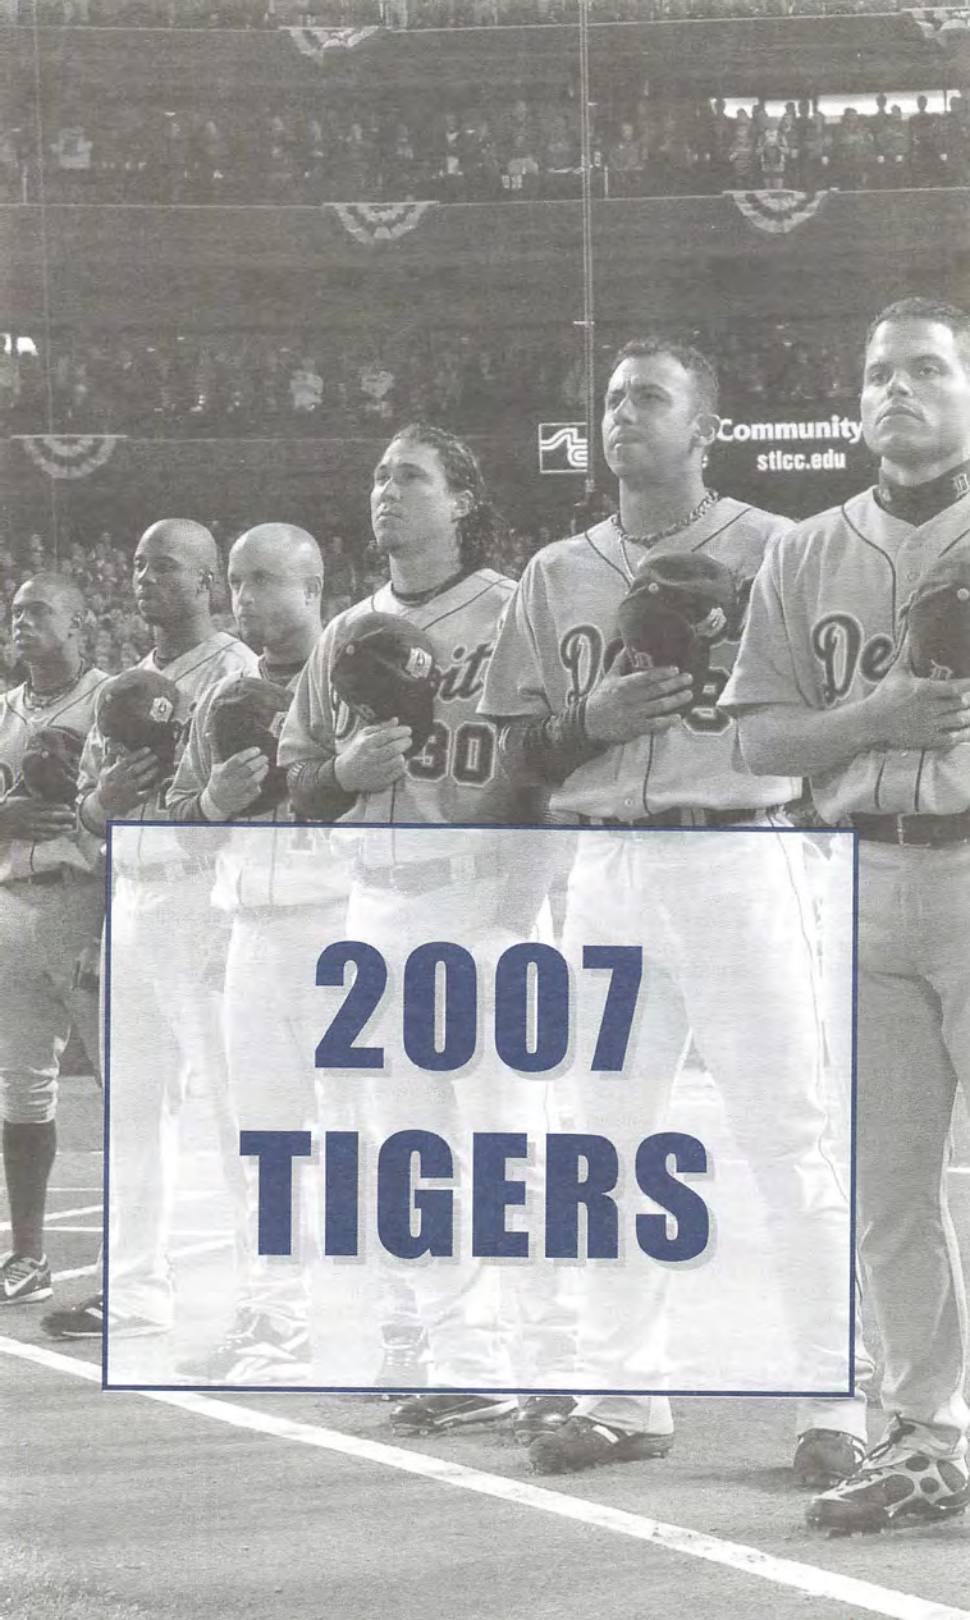

The Detroit Tigers organization hosts an annual event known as Willie Horton's Batting for Kids in which over 350 children ages six through sixteen participate in a baseball skills competition promoting the enrichment of inner-city youth and recreational sports. The event, sponsored in part by the Detroit Tigers Foundation, benefits Don Bosco Hall, a human services agency founded in 1954 to respond to the needs of children and families within the metropolitan Detroit area. The skills competitions include base running, accuracy throw, and hitting. Following the event, winners are recognized in an on-field ceremony with Willie Horton prior to a Tigers baseball game.

Dreams Come True

Throughout the season, the Tigers grant the wishes of Tigers fans of all ages with special needs or serious illness. Individuals and groups are invited to view batting practice on the field and meet Tigers players and coaches.

Tigers Fields of Champions

The Tigers are dedicated to providing fun, safe, state-of-the-art baseball and softball fields for youth in communities that lack proper facilities. In 2004 the Tigers partnered with the Detroit Public Schools (DPS) and City of Detroit to renovate seven baseball and softball diamonds in Detroit including the Willie Horton Baseball and Softball Diamonds at Northwestern High School, Horton's alma mater. In 2005 and 2006 the Tigers worked with DPS to install a 30-foot flagpole, state monument, new fencing and bumper posts as well as perform infield, outfield and mound maintenance at the site.

10 — MANAGER

Named the 36th manager in Tigers history on October 4, 2005...a veteran of 43 years in professional baseball, he returns to the organization that originally signed him as a catcher on September 21, 1963.

- Tabbed the American League Manager of the Year by both the BBWAA and The Sporting News in 2006 after guiding the Tigers to the franchise's first playoff berth since 1987 -- joined Sparky Anderson (1984, 1987) as the only other club manager to garner the award from the BBWAA...selected the Major League Manager of the Year by Baseball America.

- Will serve as the American League's manager at the 78th Major League Baseball All-Star Game at AT&T Park in San Francisco in 2007, his fourth appearance (second as a manager) at the All-Star Game -- served as the National League's manager at the 69th Major League Baseball All-Star Game at Coors Field in Colorado in 1998...served as a coach for the National League squad in both 1991 and 1994 while managing the Pirates.

- Prior to his appointment as the Tigers manager, he served for six seasons (2000-05) as a major league scout for the St. Louis Cardinals -- scouted National League clubs from PNC Park and American League clubs from Jacobs Field.

- Previously served 14 seasons as a manager at the major league level with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1986-96), Florida Marlins (1997-98) and Colorado Rockies (1999).

- Won three straight National League East Division championships with the Pirates (1990-92)...advanced to the post-season with the Marlins as the National League's wild card winner in 1997 -- advanced past San Francisco and Atlanta in the playoffs to defeat Cleveland to claim the World Series title.

- Named the National League Manager of the Year by the BBWAA twice during his career, 1990 and 1992...earned the same honor from The Sporting News three times during his career, 1988, 1990 and 1992.

- Earned his 1,000th career win as a major league manager on April 15, 1999, as the Rockies defeated San Diego 6-4 at Coors Field.

- Served as Tony LaRussa's third base coach for four seasons (1982-85) with the Chicago White Sox before being named the 33rd manager in Pirates history on November 20, 1985...managed two games for the White Sox while LaRussa was suspended in 1985, winning the first game and losing the second.

- Managed for 11 seasons at the minor league level in the Tigers organization (1971-81), advancing to the post-season six times and claiming his respective league championship three times.

- Selected as the manager of the year in the Florida State League in both 1977-78 and in the American Association in 1979.

- Served as a coach for Rocky Mount in the first half of the 1971 season before receiving his first managerial experience with Bristol that same season.

- Spent six seasons as minor league catcher in the Tigers organization (1964-69) before serving as a coach at Montgomery in 1970 -- appeared in two games as a player with Montgomery in 1970.

- In recognition of his accomplishments in 1990, he won the Dapper Dan Man of the Year Award, an annual honor given to a Pittsburgh sports figure for outstanding achievement on a national level.

- A native of Perrysburg, OH, he lettered in football, basketball and baseball at Perrysburg High School...the school's baseball field is named after Leyland...was inducted into Perrysburg High School's Hall of Fame on February 2, 2007.

- He, his wife Katie and their two children Patrick (10/11/91) and Kellie (6/23/93) reside in Pittsburgh, PA during the off-season...his brother, Tom, is a Catholic priest and performed Jim and Katie's wedding ceremony in November of 1987.

55 - PITCHING COACH

Named the Tigers pitching coach on October 21, 2005, he enters his 29th season of professional baseball.

- Served as the pitching coach for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays for two seasons (2004-05)...spent the previous seven seasons (1997-2003) as a coach in the Devil Rays minor league system, including the final six as the minor league pitching coordinator.
- Prior to joining the Devil Rays organization, he spent 11 seasons (1986-96) as a coach with the California Angels organization...coached in the Angels minor league system with Single A Palm Springs (1986), Double A Midland (1987) and Triple A Edmonton (1988-90) before becoming the roving minor league instructor in 1991.
- Joined the Angels major league coaching staff on May 22, 1992, following the Angels team bus crash that injured several members of the coaching staff -- remained in that position until joining the Devil Rays organization following the 1996 season...at 31 years of age, he became one of the youngest-ever major league pitching coaches.

- Began his coaching career with the Gulf Coast League White Sox in 1985.
- His pitching career spanned five seasons in the New York Yankees (1979-83) and Chicago White Sox (1983) organizations -- his career ended when he suffered a broken left arm while pitching in the instructional league with the White Sox in 1983...spent the entire 1984 season rehabbing before starting his coaching career.
- He is the brother-in-law of Nardi Contreras, former major league pitching coach for the Yankees, Seattle Mariners and White Sox...he is also the brother-in-law of former major league pitcher Rich Monteleone.
- He, his wife Donna and two sons C.J. (9/17/90) and Cody (7/4/94) reside in Tampa, FL during the off-season.

- He and his wife Paula reside in Wyandotte, MI...the couple has two daughters, Audrey and Whitney.

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroiters," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

Birthplace: Brooklyn, NY

Height/Weight: 5-11/185

1 - SPRING TRAINING INSTRUCTOR

A veteran of 19 seasons at the major league level with the Tigers, Whitaker returns for the fourth straight year as a Spring Training instructor.

- Completed his 19-year career among the top-10 in Tigers history in numerous categories: games played (2,390, 3rd), at-bats (8,570, 4th), runs scored (1,386, 4th), hits (2,369, 6th), total bases (3,651, 5th), extra-base hits (729, 6th), doubles (420, 5th), home runs (244, 6th), RBI (1,084, 8th), walks (1,197, 2nd) and stolen bases (143, 10th).
- A five-time all-star selection (1983-87), he earned three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards at second base (1982, 1984, 1985) and five Silver Slugger Awards as the top offensive second baseman (1982, 1983, 1984, 1985, 1987).
- His .984 fielding percentage at second base is tops at the position in franchise history.

- Twice selected the Tiger of the Year by the Detroit chapter of the BBWAA (1983, 1989).
- Finished eighth in the American League Most Valuable Player balloting in 1983.
- Tabbed the American League's Rookie of the Year in 1978 after hitting .285 in 139 games for the Tigers.
- He and teammate Alan Trammell combined to play in 1,918 games together, an American League record.
- Is one of two players in Tigers history with at least 2,000 games played, 2,000 hits and 200 home runs, joining Al Kaline in accomplishing the feat.
- Selected by the Tigers in the fifth round of the June 1975 draft.
- He and his wife Crystal reside in Lakeland, FL...the couple has four children: Asia (10/12/80), Sarah (10/14/84), Angela (9/30/86) and Jessica (2/7/90).

TRAMMELL AND WHITAKER SET AL RECORD

Former Tigers Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, who played together from 1977-95, established an American League record in 1995 with 1,918 appearances as teammates. Trammell and Whitaker, who played shortstop and second base, respectively, broke the old AL mark of 1,914 held by Kansas City third baseman George Brett and second baseman Frank White. The major league mark for appearances by two players as teammates is 2,015, held by third baseman Ron Santo and outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, who played together from 1960-73.

RUDY YORK'S AWESOME AUGUST

The Tigers Rudy York had one of the best months in baseball history back in August of 1937. In 1998, Sammy Sosa's terrific tear in June brought back memories of York's historic month. Sosa set a major league record by clubbing 20 homers in June of 1998, breaking York's mark of 18 from August of '37. Sosa actually broke the record at Tiger Stadium on June 25, 1998 with a homer off of Brian Moehler.

Hitting home runs was not the only thing that York did in prolific fashion that month, however. He also compiled a .363 batting average (41x113) in 30 games during the month, and his 18 homers and 50 RBI for the month equaled roughly half of his total for the entire season (35 homers and 103 RBI).

York actually hit 12 longballs in his last 14 games in August and drove in 29 runs during that stretch. He also scored 27 runs, produced five doubles and two triples and totaled 104 total bases. York's slugging percentage in April of 1937 was an astounding .920.

2006 SEASON

Opened the season at Triple A Toledo, before joining the Tigers for the remainder of the season on June 15.

- Fanned 12 batters in a loss on April 26 versus Indianapolis -- allowed three runs (two earned) in six innings of work.

- Finished 2-2 with a 2.43 ERA (29.2IP/8ER) and 38 strikeouts in five starts during April for the Mud Hens.

- Sideline May 3-14 with a right oblique strain.

- Tabbed the International League Pitcher of the Week for June 5-11 after winning both of his starts and posting a 1.20 ERA (15.0IP/2ER).

- Recalled by the Tigers from Toledo on June 15 -- tied for seventh in the International League at the time with a 2.52 ERA.

- Split his time with the Tigers between the starting rotation and bullpen -- finished 2-2 with a 4.29 ERA (35.2IP/17ER) in seven starts and 1-1 with a 2.55 ERA (24.2IP/7ER) in 17 relief outings.

- Established a career high with 4.2 innings of relief on July 22 versus Oakland.

- Posted a 22.0-inning scoreless streak August 3-30, establishing a career high -- longest scoreless streak by a Tigers pitcher in 2006.

- Held lefthanded opposition to a .241 batting average (19x79) with the Tigers...righties hit .261 (41x157) with Ledezma on the mound.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Began the 2005 season in the Tigers starting rotation after making Detroit's Opening Day roster out of Spring

Training.

- Established a career high with seven strikeouts in a win over Tampa Bay on May 18.
- Finished 1-3 with a 7.31 ERA (28.1IP/23ER) in six starts during May -- tied for fourth in the American League with 17 walks during the month, while he tied for sixth with three losses.
- Optioned to Toledo following his start on June 4 versus Baltimore.

Inserted into the Tigers bullpen after being recalled from Double A Erie on July 15, 2004 -- finished 1-1 with a 6.00 ERA (12.0IP/8ER) in seven relief outings with Detroit, while he went 3-2 with a 3.92 ERA (41.1IP/18ER) in eight starts.

- Matched a career best with a three-game winning streak July 25-August 19.
- Joined the Tigers rotation and made his first start of the season at the major league level on July 30 versus the Chicago White Sox -- matched a career high with four strikeouts, but did not figure in the decision after leaving following three innings of work due to a rain delay.
- Equalled his career best in strikeouts with four in consecutive starts August 11 at Oakland and August 19 at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field against the White Sox.
- Returned to the bullpen after his start on September 6 versus Kansas City -- made four appearances in relief September 11-22, before making one last start in the second game of a doubleheader on September 30 at Tampa Bay.
- Held lefties to a .227 batting average (10x44) with Detroit...righthanded batters hit .285 (45x158) with Ledezma on the mound.
- Tied for fifth-best in the American League in inducing opponents to ground into a double play in double play situations, 19.0 percent (8x42).

A Rule 5 Draft selection from the Boston Red Sox organization, Ledezma made the jump to the majors from Single A and split the 2003 campaign between the starting rotation and bullpen for the Tigers.

- Used mainly in relief during his rookie season, he was 2-2 with a 5.18 ERA (48.2IP/28ER) in 26 relief outings...in his eight starts, he finished 1-5 with a 6.62 ERA (35.1IP/26ER).
- Made his major league debut on April 2 versus Minnesota, firing two scoreless innings.
- Appeared in five of the Tigers first 18 games of the season, but after allowing a game-winning home run to Miguel Tejada on April 22 at Oakland, he worked in only six of Detroit's next 37 games.
- Posted five straight scoreless outings May 21-June 11, tossing 9.1 innings.
- Earned his first major league win June 4 at San Diego, working two scoreless innings -- won three straight decisions June 4-July 13, the longest winning streak by a Tigers pitcher in 2003.
- Worked a career-high four innings of relief July 2 versus Toronto -- allowed two runs during the outing, both coming in his second inning of work...outing started a stretch in which he did not allow a run in 14.0 straight innings July 2-13, matching Nate Cornejo for the team high.

- Added to the Tigers starting rotation and made his first major league start July 8 versus the Chicago White Sox -- did not factor in the decision after blanking Chicago on five hits for five innings...established a career high with four strikeouts, a best he would match on July 25 versus Kansas City and July 31 at Seattle.
- Did not issue a walk in an 18.2-inning stretch July 8-25 before issuing two walks in the third inning against Kansas City on July 25.
- Combined with Jamie Walker and Chris Mears to shut out Boston on July 13, earning the win by tossing seven strong innings.
- Struggled in his next six starts, taking the loss in five of them, before being sent back to the bullpen after his start on August 16 at Anaheim...during the six-start stretch July 20-August 16, he posted a 9.64 ERA (23.1IP/25ER).
- Appeared six times over the remainder of the season in relief, allowing 10 runs on 13 hits in 8.2 innings (10.38 ERA)...called upon in relief three times in seven games August 20-27, before being used only three times over the Tigers final 31 games.
- Posted a 3-2 record and 3.12 ERA (52.0IP/18ER) in 22 outings prior to the all-star break -- opponents hit .238 (46x193) against him...finished 0-5 with a 10.13 ERA (32.0IP/36ER) in 12 games after the all-star break -- opposition batted .379 (53x140) with Ledezma on the mound.
- Fared better at Comerica Park, going 2-3 with a 4.92 ERA (53.0IP/29ER) in 17 games...was 1-4 with a 7.26 ERA (31.0IP/25ER) in 17 appearances on the road.

HOME RUN DAY, 2002

Major League Baseball games produced an all-time record 62 home runs on July 2, 2002. Included in that total was the 12 homers that the Tigers and Chicago White Sox combined to hit, matching a major league record previously set by the same two teams at Tiger Stadium on May 28, 1995. It was the first time in baseball history that each team hit six home runs in a game.

Other notes of interest:

- The Tigers hit their last three home runs in the ninth inning of the 17-9 loss, the last two with two outs.
- The game-time temperature on the muggy summer night at Comerica Park was 93 degrees.
- The first inning featured four home runs; each of the teams hit two.
- The first three hits and four of the first five by the White Sox were home runs.

Following is a list of all 12 of the home runs hit at Comerica Park on July 2, 2002:

1. Detroit, Dmitri Young, none on, off Todd Ritchie, 1st inning
2. Detroit, Robert Fick, one on, off Todd Ritchie, 1st inning
3. Chicago, Kenny Lofton, none on, off Adam Bernero, 1st inning
4. Chicago, Magglio Ordonez, none on, off Adam Bernero, 1st inning
5. Chicago, Jose Valentin, none on, off Adam Bernero, 2nd inning
6. Chicago, Sandy Alomar Jr., none on, off Adam Bernero, 4th inning
7. Chicago, Sandy Alomar Jr., none on, off Jose Lima, 6th inning
8. Detroit, George Lombard, none on, off Todd Ritchie, 7th inning
9. Chicago, Magglio Ordonez, three on, off Jose Paniagua, 8th inning
10. Detroit, Wendell Magee, none on, off Bob Howry, 9th inning
11. Detroit, Damion Easley, one on, off Bob Howry, 9th inning

- Averaged 2.47 total chances per nine innings, fifth-most among league pitchers...topped all AL pitchers with 11 caught stealings against, eight pickoffs and 0.87 pick-off throws per baserunner.

- Was the Tigers Opening Day starter on March 31 versus Minnesota, becoming just the fifth Tigers lefthander to receive an Opening Day start since 1968 -- joined Mickey Lolich, Dave Roberts, Frank Tanana and Justin Thompson...first lefthander to do so since Thompson in 1998...suffered the loss to the Twins, allowing two runs on five hits in seven innings.

- The loss to Minnesota on March 31 was the first of nine straight for Maroth over a 10-start stretch March 31-May 18 -- the nine-game losing streak matched Jeremy Bonderman for the longest by a Tigers pitcher in 2003...became first Tigers pitcher to drop his first nine decisions since Ted Gray also lost nine straight to open the 1953 season.

- His first five losses came in Detroit's first 17 games, making him the first-ever Tigers pitcher to do so according to the Elias Sports Bureau...the last major leaguer to lose five times in his club's first 17 games was Pittsburgh's Paul Wagner in 1995.

- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Maroth joined Texas' Dave Stewart (1984) as the only other pitcher in major league history to lose six games by May 1...Maroth became only the second pitcher in the last 110 years to lose 10 games before June 1, joining Cincinnati's Dolf Luque who posted a 2-10 record in April and May during 1922.

- Tossed the first complete game of his young major league career on April 20 at Kansas City, taking the loss after surrendering four runs (three earned) on four hits in eight innings.

- Carried a no-hitter into the eighth inning in the second game of a doubleheader against Baltimore on May 1, but suffered the loss after allowing four runs on four hits in the inning -- Jay Gibbons broke up his bid with a single to right field to start the inning.

- Snapped his personal nine-game losing streak with his first win of the season on May 23 at U.S. Cellular Field against Chicago, limiting the White Sox to two runs on three hits in seven innings of work.

- Departed his start on May 28 versus Cleveland in the second inning with a strained right hamstring sustained backing up the plate...worked 1.1 innings against the Indians, the shortest start of his major league career...skipped over once in the Tigers starting rotation, he made his next start on June 7 at San Francisco.

- Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for June, finishing 2-2 with a 3.19 ERA (31.0IP/11ER) in five starts...allowed three runs-or-less in all five of his starts, including two runs-or-less in three starts.

- Won consecutive decisions June 30-July 5 for the first time in 2003 to match a career-best winning streak...equaled the two-game winning streak with back-to-back wins September 23-28.

- Surrendered a career-high eight runs on nine hits in three innings on September 5 at Toronto -- suffered the loss, his 20th of the season.

- Issued two walks-or-fewer in 28 of his 33 starts, including 11 of his final 12 starts of the season.

- Prior to the all-star break, he posted a 4-13 record with a 4.89 ERA (112.1IP/61ER) in 19 starts...in 14 starts following the all-star break, he was 5-8 with a 6.89 ERA (81.0IP/62ER).

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

In all, since 1900, major league batters have hit for the cycle 223 times, 111 in the American League and 112 in the National. The most recent Tigers player to hit for the cycle was Carlos Guillen on August 1, 2006.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record by becoming the first player to accomplish the feat three times in a career. Meusel's record-setting third cycle came at Detroit's Navin Field on July 26, 1928. The Cubs Babe Herman later tied the record in 1933.

Following is a list of every cycle hit in a game involving the Tigers:

CENTERING ON FRUSTRATION

Of the 1,063 home runs hit at Comerica Park in its first seven seasons, just 22 have cleared the center field wall. The eight-foot, six-inch center field wall runs from left-center field to the out-of-town scoreboard right below Comerica Park's giant water feature. Of the 22 home runs, 12 have been hit by a Tigers player. Billy McMillon became the first Tiger to accomplish the feat in the first inning off Boston's Rolando Arrojo on September 16, 2000. Following is a list of those players who managed to hit roundtrippers to center field at Comerica Park:

Player	Team	Pitcher	Date
Richie Sexson	Cleveland	Weaver	May 24, 2000
J. D. Drew	St. Louis	Moehler	June 10, 2000

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

In his third season with the Tigers in 2005, Robertson matched career highs with 32 games started and 196.2 innings pitched.

- Tied for second in the American League with a career-high 16 losses and posted a .304 winning percentage, fourth-lowest in the league.
- Allowed 15 unearned runs, tied for third-most in the league, while 10 batters reached base on an error with Robertson on the mound, tied for sixth-most in the league.
- Received 3.66 runs per nine innings from the Tigers offense, the third-lowest run support in the league.
- Averaged 3.46 pitches per batter faced, the fourth-lowest average in the league, while also averaging 14.9 pitches per inning, the 10th-lowest average in the league.
- Posted a 1.59 ground ball/fly ball ratio (325 ground ball outs/204 fly ball outs), fourth-best in the league.

37 - LEFTHANDED PITCHER

2006 SEASON

In his first season with the Tigers after signing as a free agent during the off-season, he was selected to the American League's all-star squad for the fourth time in his career.

- Won his fifth Rawlings Gold Glove Award.
- Tied for fourth in the American League with 17 wins, while he was eighth with a .680 winning percentage and ninth with a .253 batting average against.
- Third among all league pitchers with 38 assists.
- Rated as possessing the best pick-off move in the American League by Baseball America.
- Made his fourth career start on Opening Day at the major league level on April 3 at Kansas City -- earned the win after limiting the Royals to one run in six innings of work.
- Tabbed the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for April after posting a 4-2 record and 2.59 ERA (41.2IP/12ER) in six starts -- led the American League with 41.2 innings pitched during the month, while he tied for the lead with four wins and finished fourth with a 2.59 ERA and .203 batting average against (31x153).
- Tied for ninth in the league with three wins during May.
- Earned the win on June 18 at Chicago's Wrigley Field against the Cubs -- marked his 200th career victory.
- Eighth among all league pitchers with 39.2 innings pitched during June -- finished 3-0 with a 3.63 ERA (39.2IP/16ER) in six starts during the month.
- Started for the American League in the 77th Major League Baseball All-Star Game at PNC Park in Pittsburgh on July 11 -- did not figure in the decision after allowing one run in two innings of work.
- Won six straight decisions August 17-September 23, compiling a 1.67 ERA (54.0IP/10ER) over the eight-start stretch.
- Finished 3-1 with a 1.64 ERA (33.0IP/6ER) in five starts during August to earn Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors -- topped all league pitchers with a .176 batting average against (21x119) during the month, while he was second with a 1.64 ERA.
- Ninth among all American League pitchers with a 2.79 ERA (38.2IP/12ER) in six starts during September.

- Took the loss in relief for the Tigers on October 1 versus Kansas City -- his first relief outing since September 28, 2003 at Detroit while pitching with Minnesota.
- Finished 10th in the American League with 11.74 baserunners per nine innings and 8.60 hits per nine innings.
- Posted a 1.64 ground ball/fly ball ratio (335 ground ball outs/204 fly ball outs), sixth-best in the league.
- Finished 7-3 with a 3.26 ERA (102.0IP/37ER) in 17 games (16 starts) at Comerica Park -- ninth in the American League with a 3.26 ERA at home...posted a 10-5 record and 4.41 ERA (102.0IP/50ER) in 17 starts on the road.
- Compiled an 11-3 record and 3.85 ERA (114.2IP/49ER) in 18 starts prior to the all-star break -- tied for second in the league with 11 wins prior to the break...registered a 6-5 record and 3.83 ERA (89.1IP/38ER) in 16 games (15 starts) following the all-star break.
- Did not allow a hit with runners on base in either of his starts during the American League Division Series versus the Yankees on October 6 or the American League Championship Series versus the Athletics on October 13 -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he held the opposition hitless in 28 at-bats during the post-season dating back to 1999 (last such three batters in 1999, 18 at-bats against the Yankees and seven at-bats against the Athletics)...it is the fifth-longest such streak in post-season history.
- Earned the win in Game Two of the World Series versus the Cardinals on October 22 -- according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the oldest starting pitcher to win a World Series game...Early Winn had been the oldest at age 39.

- Recalled by the Tigers from Toledo on September 1.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Saw action in eight games with the Seattle Mariners after having his contract purchased from Triple A Tacoma on September 7, 2005 -- started at second base twice, while also seeing action as a pinch-runner and pinch-hitter.

Saw action in 19 games during four separate stints with the Mariners after being acquired from the Tigers in a three-player deal on January 8, 2004.

Spent his first full season at the major league level in 2003, beginning the year as the Tigers second baseman before shifting back to his natural shortstop position late in June.

- His .225 batting average and .284 slugging percentage were the lowest of any American League player, while his .292 on-base percentage was third-worst in the league.
- Topped the league with 18 sacrifices, the most by a Tigers player since Chico Fernandez had 19 sacrifices in 1960...the 18 sacrifices were the most in the majors since the Kansas City's Tom Goodwin had 21 in 1996.
- Seventh in the league with a 1.78 ground ball out/fly ball out ratio (178/100)...64.0 percent of the outs he put into play came via a ground ball, seventh-most in the league.

- Averaged 3.29 pitches per plate appearances, fifth-fewest in the league...seventh in the AL by putting 23.8 percent of the pitches he saw into play.
- Homered once every 222.0 at-bats, the lowest home run frequency in the league.
- Struggled against lefthanders, hitting .187 (25x134) with a .232 on-base percentage and .246 slugging percentage -- last in the league in both batting average and on-base percentage, while his slugging percentage was second-worst...batted .242 (75x310) with a .317 on-base percentage and .300 slugging percentage versus righties.
- Combined on-base percentage and slugging percentage of .576 was the lowest in the AL.
- Managed a .200 batting average (44x220) in 69 games on the road, lowest in the league...hit .250 (56x224) in 72 games at Comerica Park.
- Batted .205 (32x156) from the seventh inning on, fifth-lowest in the league.
- Committed 10 errors at second base, tied for seventh-most among league second basemen...his 68 double plays turned at shortstop were the ninth-most in the league.
- Established a career high with an eight-game hitting streak April 6-16, batting .360 (9x25) with three doubles and four RBI.
- Started his first game at shortstop on June 22 at Colorado after his previous 50 starts were at second base -- started 84 of the Tigers final 91 games at shortstop.
- Swiped two bases versus Toronto on June 30, establishing a career high.
- Strung together 218 total errorless chances at shortstop June 30-August 27...committed nine errors over his final 31 games at shortstop August 28-September 28, a total of 158 chances.
- Ripped a solo home run July 1 versus Toronto, his first home run since June 19, 2002 at Atlanta -- a stretch of 321 homerless at-bats.
- Snapped a season-high stretch of 17 at-bats without a hit by collecting a single in the second inning on August

10 versus Minnesota.

- Established a career high with four RBI on September 18 versus Toronto.
- Equaled a career best with three hits at Kansas City on September 23.
- Batted .271 (23x85) with 10 runs scored, five doubles and 11 RBI in 27 games during September -- his .271 batting average was his highest single month batting average ...the 11 RBI are the most by Santiago in a single month during his major league career.

One of four unanimous selections to the TOPPS Rookie All-Star team in 2002, the first Tigers player on the squad since Tony Clark in 1996.

- Made his major league debut with the Tigers on May 17 versus Texas after having his contract purchased from Toledo earlier in the day...doubled off Texas' Dave Burba in the eighth inning for the first hit of his major league career.
- Established a career high with three hits May 18 versus Texas, falling a home run shy of hitting for the cycle as he doubled, tripled and drove in two runs -- equaled the high with three hits on May 26 at Chicago's Comiskey Park against the White Sox and June 18 versus Atlanta.
- Belted his first major league home run to lead-off the game June 3 versus Boston, taking Pedro Martinez deep to right field...Damion Easley followed with a home run against Martinez and Santiago and Easley became the first Tigers batters to lead off a game with back-to-back home runs since Lou Whitaker and Alan Trammell pulled off the feat in the second game of a doubleheader at Cleveland on August 5, 1986 against John Butcher... Santiago added a home run later in the contest against Tim Wakefield, giving him his first career multi-home run game.
- He led off the game the following day, June 4, against Boston with a home run against John Burkett to become only the third Tigers player to lead off consecutive games with a home run and the first since Lou Whitaker on May 6-7, 1983 versus California...Dick McAuliffe was the first Tigers player to belt lead-off home runs in consecutive games, doing so during the 1969 season.
- With his three home runs in two games against Boston on June 3-4, he became the first Tigers player to hit his first three home runs over a two-game span.
- Left the game on July 23 versus Kansas City in the third inning with a right wrist injury -- further examination revealed a fractured right hamate bone and he was placed on the disabled list the following day...underwent surgery on July 25.
- Playing time was limited following his return from the disabled list by his ability to only hit righthanded in game situations before being given clearance to bat lefthanded on September 14 versus Kansas City.
- Scratched from the lineup on September 21 versus the New York Yankees with soreness in his right wrist...further examination required more rest for the wrist and he was shut down for the remainder of the season.
- Underwent surgery to correct chronic dislocation and looseness in his left shoulder, a procedure performed by Dr. Kyle Anderson on September 26 at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

- Ranked among the American League rookie leaders in three categories: tied for second with five triples, tied for fourth with eight stolen bases and ninth with a .306 on-base percentage.
- Posted a .093 batting average (9x97) with two strikes, third-worst in the American League.
- Fared better hitting on the road, batting .275 (28x102) compared to .217 (26x120) at Comerica Park.
- Batted .250 (42x168) with all four of his home runs against righties...hit .222 (12x54) versus lefties.

SHEFFIELD'S PROLIFIC PRODUCTION

Gary Sheffield enters the 2007 season 110 hits away from reaching the 2,500-hit plateau in his major league career. With his 2,500th hit, Sheffield would be only the seventh player in major league history to total at least 2,500 hits, 450 home runs, 1,500 RBI and 200 stolen bases, joining the following six players:

Player	H	HR	RBI	SB
Hank Aaron	3,771	755	2,297	240
Willie Mays	3,283	660	1,903	338
Dave Winfield	3,110	465	1,833	223
Frank Robinson	2,943	586	1,812	204

How Obtained: Selected by the Tigers from Pittsburgh in the major league phase of the Rule 5 Draft on December 15, 2003

26 - FIRST BASEMAN

2006 SEASON

Served as the Tigers first baseman for the majority of the season before being optioned to Triple A Toledo following the club's acquisition of Sean Casey on July 31.

- Belted two home runs on April 3 at Kansas City, becoming the third Tigers player to belt multiple home runs on Opening Day -- established a career high with the two home runs...matched the high with two home runs on April 6 at Texas and June 18 at Wrigley Field against the Chicago Cubs.

- Collected three hits in each of his first three games of the season, becoming the first major league player to do so since Toronto's George Bell in 1984.

- Connected for five home runs in his first four games of the season -- became only the third major leaguer to accomplish the feat, joining Lou Brock (1967) and Barry Bonds (2002).

- Matched a career high with three RBI on April 8 at Texas, May 16 versus Minnesota and June 18 at Wrigley Field against the Chicago Cubs.

- Established American League records by belting seven home runs in his team's first nine games of the season, eight home runs in his team's first 12 games of the season and nine home runs in his team's first 13 games of the season.

- Named American League Player of the Week for April 2-9 after batting .583 (14x24) with five home runs and nine RBI in six games during the week.

- After connecting for 10 home runs in his first 23 games, he hit six over his final 92 games with the Tigers.

- Finished the month of April with 19 extra-base hits and 72 total bases, the most by a Tigers player in April since 1960...his 10 home runs in April matched Cecil Fielder's club record for home runs during the month, established in 1996 -- named Tigers Player of the Month for April after hitting .326 (30x92) with 17 runs scored, six doubles, two triples, 10 home runs and 20 RBI in 25 games.

- Batted .351 (26x74) during a 22-game stretch May 4-28 -- collected four doubles, a home run and eight RBI during the stretch.

- Posted a season-high nine-game hitting streak June 28-July 8, batting .406 (13x32).

- Optioned to Toledo by the Tigers on July 31.

RODRIGUEZ AMONG SELECT COMPANY

Ivan Rodriguez is one of only four players in major league history to win 10 Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and have a lifetime batting average over the .300 mark. Rodriguez won the American League's Rawlings Gold Glove for catchers in both 2004 and 2006 with the Tigers after earning the award for 10 consecutive seasons 1992-2001. He enters the 2007 season with a career .304 batting average.

Joining Rodriguez in this select group is Willie Mays, Roberto Clemente and Roberto Alomar. Mays and Clemente, both Hall-of-Famers, each collected 12 Rawlings Gold Gloves and finished with .302 and .317 lifetime batting averages, respectively. Alomar received 10 Rawlings Gold Gloves and finished with a career .300 batting average.

THANKS A MILLION, TIGERS FANS

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 42 seasons, the lone American League team to do so. Only the Cardinals (43 years) and the Dodgers (61 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 48 years in Los Angeles. In addition, the Tigers topped the one hundred million mark in franchise history in 1994.

FIRST NIGHT GAME IN DETROIT IN 1948

Tiger Stadium, then known as Briggs Stadium, hosted its first-ever night game on June 15, 1948, as 54,480 fans watched Hal Newhouser and the Tigers defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-1. The eight light towers were turned on at 9:29 p.m., and were comprised of 1,458 incandescent bulbs. The stadium thus became the last in the American League to install a lighting system. The last park in the entire major leagues to install lights was Wrigley Field, home of the Chicago Cubs, which waited until 1988 before it began hosting night games.

In comparison to the artificial light that shone that night at Briggs Stadium, Comerica Park's 16 light standards produce over 1.3 million watts of light, with the five-story outfield structures holding just 75 bulbs each at over 20 inches in diameter.

TIGERS DOMINATE 1968 AL MVP BALLOTING

Led by American League MVP and Cy Young Award-winner Denny McLain, the 1968 Detroit Tigers won the third of the franchise's four World Series titles, defeating Bob Gibson and the St. Louis Cardinals, four games-to-three.

McLain, who easily won the AL MVP award that year by 119 points in balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America, was one of three Tigers to finish in the top four in the voting. Catcher Bill Freehan was the runner-up to McLain and outfielder Willie Horton finished fourth. In all, seven Tiger players received votes for the MVP including Dick McAuliffe (finished seventh), Jim Northrup (13th), Norm Cash (T-23rd) and Mickey Stanley (T-25th).

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

TIGERS HOLD ALL-TIME TRIPLE PLAY LEAD

Detroit turned the 33rd triple play in team history on August 1, 2001 versus Seattle in the fourth inning, as Mark McLemore lined to second while runners on first and second attempted to steal (Tom Lampkin and Ichiro Suzuki). Second baseman Damian Easley caught the liner, flipped to shortstop Deivi Cruz, who then threw to first baseman Shane Halter. The Tigers all-time total of 33 is more than any other team in major league history.

The St. Louis Cardinals lead the National League with 32. The Tigers of 1908 turned two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start the club's historic run of three-ply killings. The 1911 Tigers posted three triple plays.

HOME RUNS AT TIGER STADIUM

Tiger Stadium was home to 10,878 home runs from 1912-99, a total which is second-most in all major league ballparks. Wrigley Field is the all-time leader with 10,980 homers. The first home run hit in Tiger Stadium came on May 5, 1912, by Del Pratt of the St. Louis Browns. Hank Greenberg hit 39 home runs at Tiger Stadium in 1938, the most by a Tigers player at home in a single season. Jimmie Foxx had the highest single-season total for a visitor in 1932 when he hit nine round-trippers at Tiger Stadium for the Philadelphia Athletics.

Following is a list of the all-time individual home run leaders at Tiger Stadium:

Batting average, home runs and RBI led the entire major leagues.

Also led the majors with 216 hits, .517 slugging average, 296 total bases and 76 steals.

Became the second American Leaguer and fifth player overall to win the Triple Crown.

Hal Newhouser • 1945

25 Wins, 1.81 ERA, 212 Strikeouts

Wins, ERA and strikeouts led the entire major leagues.

Also led the majors with 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings.

Became the sixth American League pitcher to win the Triple Crown.

RUTH, ROWE MISS CHANCES TO MANAGERS TIGERS

When Tigers owner Frank Navin was looking for a manager before the 1934 season, Babe Ruth was at the top of his list. However, Ruth, after being offered the job, postponed his decision to take a trip to Honolulu, Hawaii. Impatient for Ruth's answer, Navin dumped the home run king and hired Mickey Cochrane instead. Cochrane, of course, went on to be named league MVP as the club's catcher in 1934 and took the Tigers to their first World Series in 25 years.

Former Tiger Lynwood Thomas "Schoolboy" Rowe also had an opportunity to manage the Tigers in 1952 when Walter "Spike" Briggs, Jr., then President of the Tigers, decided to change skippers in mid-season. He first offered the job to former White Sox Hall-of-Famer Ted Lyons who turned it down. Briggs then tried to contact Rowe, but Rowe had gone fishing and could not be reached. Fred Hutchinson, Briggs' third choice, ended up with the position, taking over for Red Rolfe.

FIVE TIGERS SQUADS HAVE WON 100 GAMES

Five Tigers teams have won 100 or more games in a season, most recently the 1984 club led by Trammell, Gibson, Whitaker, Morris, Hernandez and the rest. Believe it or not, however, two of the Tigers 100-game winners did not even capture the American League pennant.

Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished two-and-a-half games behind Babe Ruth and the Red Sox. Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) ended the season eight games back of the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk and featuring Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle.

Two of the five clubs, though, did win the World Series. Under Sparky Anderson, the aforementioned '84 Tigers (104-58) set a club record for regular-season wins and went on to defeat the San Diego Padres in the Fall Classic. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way with a seven-game victory over the St. Louis Cardinals for the World Championship.

Finally, the 1934 Tigers (101-53) fell in the middle of those two groups. Managed by Hall-of-Famer Mickey Cochrane, who was also the club's starting catcher and was named AL MVP that season, the Tigers won the pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals.

WALKING-OFF WITH THREE WINS

The Tigers ended three straight games June 26-29, 2004 with walk-off home runs by Eric Munson, Carlos Pena and Dmitri Young, marking the first time the club has done so in three consecutive games since September 17-19, 1998. During that three-game stretch, Damion Easley homered in the first and third games while Tony Clark accomplished the feat in the middle game. Additionally, Pena's walk-off grand slam on June 27 versus Arizona was the first by a Tigers player since Lou Whitaker connected off Cleveland's Derek Lilliquist on June 21, 1994.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR LEAGUE BATting AND PITCHING TITLES

A batting champion is determined each season in each league by the highest batting average (number of hits divided by the number of at bats) based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, which may include walks, sacrifices and hit by pitch.

The pitching champion is determined in each league by the lowest earned run average (number of earned runs multiplied by nine, then divided by innings pitched) with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS BY TIGERS

Since 1912, when Hall-of-Famer Sam Crawford registered the Tigers first inside-the-park home run at month-old Fenway Park in Boston, Detroit players have accounted for 47 such roundtrippers. Crawford is the only Tiger ever to have two in the same season, also in 1912, and the all-time club leader in inside-the-park homers is Lou Whitaker, who had four during his long Tiger career. In 1956, Frank Lary became the only Tiger pitcher to post an inside-the-park homer on Opening Day versus the Athletics. Following is the Tigers all-time list of inside-the-park home runs, 27 of which have been accomplished in Detroit.

MUELLER GOES 19-PLUS IN NO-DECISION

Les Mueller must have had a tired arm after July 21, 1945, the day the Tigers played the longest game in club history. Detroit played the Philadelphia Athletics to a 24-inning, 1-1 tie in a game which was called because of darkness. Mueller, who was in the midst of his only full season in the major leagues, pitched the first 19.2 innings of the ballgame and surrendered the Athletics' only run in the fourth inning. Detroit scored its lone run in the seventh inning of the game which still stands as the longest tie in American League history. That season, Mueller ended up with a 6-8 record and went the distance six times.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

JULY 8, 1941 AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and the fans were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughn led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a double and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a midsummer classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with an RBI.

JULY 10, 1951 NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an all-star record four round trippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star Games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo round tripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN DETROIT

JULY 13, 1971 AMERICAN LEAGUE 6, NATIONAL LEAGUE 4

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad pounded three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League also drilled three home runs as the two teams matched an all-star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killebrew, Frank Robinson).

Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in all-star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2 while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

JULY 12, 2005 AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and an RBI.

Andrew Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked a pair of scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th all-star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

MCLAIN WINS 31 GAMES IN 1968

Tigers righthander Denny McLain led Detroit to the 1968 World Championship with a season that recalled the era of Grove and Dean and has not been duplicated since. That year, McLain won an amazing 31 games and was named both American League MVP and Cy Young Award-winner.

En route to becoming baseball's first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934 and the first in the AL since Lefty Grove in '31, the brash McLain won nine games by June 9, including a 10-inning complete-game victory on May 20 at Minnesota. But it was the following month which put him on pace to make history. McLain reeled off a nine-game winning streak, and by July 16 he had a stunning record of 18-2 and was well on his way to the magic number of 30.

McLain earned his 30th victory on September 14 with a 5-4 complete-game win over Oakland, and three days later the Tigers clinched the American League pennant. He ended the year with a record of 31-6 and a 1.96 ERA, completed 28-of-41 starts and struck out 280 hitters in 336 innings.

NEWHOUSE CAPTURES BACK-TO-BACK MVP AWARDS

Hal Newhouse's blazing fastball made him a strikeout king and in just over 17 seasons in the majors (15 with Detroit), he won 207 games. The most dominant pitcher of the 1940s, Newhouse is also the only pitcher in major league history to win back-to-back Most Valuable Player Awards, taking American League honors in 1944 and 1945.

In all, just 11 players have won consecutive MVP Awards, five in the American League and six in the National League. Barry Bonds won his third straight MVP Award in 2003, and he is the only player to win back-to-back MVP Awards more than once (NL 1992-93; NL 2001-2003). The other 9 include Jimmy Foxx (AL 1932-33), Yogi Berra (AL 1954-55), Mickey Mantle (AL 1956-57), Ernie Banks (NL 1958-59), Roger Maris (AL 1960-61), Joe Morgan (NL 1975-76), Mike Schmidt (NL 1980-81), Dale Murphy (NL 1982-83) and Frank Thomas (AL 1993-94).

THE TIGERS 20-20 CLUB

Kirk Gibson, Alan Trammell, Chad Curtis and Damion Easley are the only four players in Tigers history to hit 20 home runs and steal 20 bases in the same season. Gibson accomplished the feat four times – in four years – and fell just one homer short of being the only 30-30 Tiger in 1985.

OPENING DAY TRIFECTA

Dmitri Young belted three home runs for the Tigers on Opening Day at Comerica Park on April 4, 2005, matching the franchise's single-game record for home runs. Young became just the third major league player to homer three times on Opening Day, joining George Bell of the Toronto Blue Jays (1988) and Karl "Tuffy" Rhodes of the Chicago Cubs.

PLAYERS/MANAGERS MEET FOR FINAL TIME

The 1934 World Series in which the Tigers played the Cardinals was the final World Series in which both opposing managers were also players. That year, second baseman/ manager Frankie Frisch's Cardinals defeated catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane's Tigers four games to three. Cochrane had already been awarded with the MVP trophy for the '34 regular season, making him and former Cleveland skipper and shortstop Lou Boudreau (1948) the only American League player/managers ever to be named league MVP.

TIGERS FIRST TO HOLD SPRING TRAINING IN ARIZONA

In 1929, the Detroit Tigers became the first major league team ever to host Spring Training in the state of Arizona. Detroit spent just one spring in Phoenix before moving the team's spring training site to Tampa, FL in 1930. The Tigers alternated sites over the next three seasons, training in both California and Texas, but the club returned to Florida in 1934 and set up camp in Lakeland. With the exception of 1943-45, when World War II forced the club to train in Evansville, IN in the nation's heartland, the Tigers have held Spring Training in Lakeland every year since.

SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On June 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. On the all-time victory list, Anderson's 2,194 total wins ranks third behind only Hall of Famers John McGraw and Connie Mack. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage, which ranks 23rd all-time.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is also the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises, to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues, and manage teams from both leagues to a World Series title.

STEARNES' STAR SHINES AT HALL OF FAME

Norman "Turkey" Stearnes, a standout slugger for the Detroit Stars of the Negro League, earned his spot in baseball history as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000. Stearnes, a gifted outfielder and powerful hitter, played for the Stars from 1923-30 and 1937, and also played with several other Negro League teams. Legendary Negro League player Satchel Paige was quoted as saying that "Turkey Stearnes was one of the greatest hitters we ever had...he was as good as anybody ever played ball."

Following his successful career in baseball, Stearnes and his wife, Nettie, stayed in Detroit. Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 4, 1979 at the age of 78. Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. In 2000, Turkey Stearnes' legacy was finally given its due recognition with his induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

HALL OF FAME

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

TY COBB

CF, 1905-26

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936

HL/Wt.: 6-1/175

Born: 12/18/1886 in Narrows, GA

Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb

Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"

Died: 7/17/61 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the major league record for career runs scored (2,246) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (295), fourth in doubles (724) and fourth in stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tiger teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400 or better three times (.420, 1911; .409, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award-winner (AL MVP) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 13 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career as a Tiger, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

MICKEY COCHRANE

C, 1934-37

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947

HL/Wt.: 5-10/180

Born: 4/6/03 in Bridgewater, MA

Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane

Nickname: "Black Mike"

Died: 6/28/62 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tiger club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 league MVP after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, took the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth in Game 6 to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Tiger Stadium.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tiger manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times in his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000 after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL MVP in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

SAM CRAWFORD

RF, 1903-17

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1957

Ht./Wt.: 6-0/190

Born: 4/18/1880 in Wahoo, NE

Full Name: Samuel Earl Crawford

Nickname: "Wahoo Sam"

Batted/Threw: L/L

Died: 6/15/68 in Hollywood, CA

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season en route to his career record of 312.
- Is the all-time leader in triples, legging out 309 for his career.
- A lifetime .309 hitter known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914 and finished runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (AL MVP).
- Helped the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1957.

CHARLIE GEHRINGER

2B, 1924-42

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1949

Ht./Wt.: 5-11/170

Born: 5/11/03 in Fowlerville, MI

Full Name: Charles Leonard Gehring

Nickname: "The Mechanical Man"

Died: 1/21/93 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average. Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13 of his 16 full seasons, had 200 or more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.
- Named the American League MVP in 1937 after hitting a career-high .371 to lead the league...finished runner-up to teammate Mickey Cochrane for the MVP award in 1934.
- In 1929, led the AL in eight categories including hits, runs, doubles, triples, stolen bases, games, putouts and fielding percentage.
- Hit 15 or more home runs in a season six times and had 100 or more RBI seven times.
- Drilled 60 doubles in 1936, a Tiger record for a lefthanded hitter.
- Batted .375 and handled 39 chances without an error in the 1935 World Series to help Detroit to the title.
- Also a part of AL pennant-winning Tiger ballclubs in 1934 and 1940.
- Had his uniform No. 2 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Hank Greenberg's No. 5 was retired.
- Served as the Tigers General Manager from 1951-53.

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

HANK GREENBERG

1B, 1930-46

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1956

Ht./Wt.: 6-3/210

Born: 1/1/11 in New York, NY

Full Name: Henry Benjamin Greenberg

Nickname: "Hammerin' Hank"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 9/4/86 in Beverly Hills, CA

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II and another season lost to injury to capture two MVP awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tiger-record 63 doubles, just four short of the major league mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as AL MVP in 1935 after leading the league with 39 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.
- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL MVP honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career-best .340 and led the league with 41 homers, 150 RBI and 50 doubles...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two homers and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first eight seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for sixth-highest in ML history.
- Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold by the Tigers to the Pirates on January 18, 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

HARRY HEILMANN

RF, 1914-29

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1952

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/195

Born: 8/3/1894 in San Francisco, CA

Full Name: Harry Edwin Heilmann

Nickname: "Slug"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 7/9/51 in Southfield, MI

Rated second only to Rogers Hornsby among righthanded hitters of his era, Harry Heilmann batted .390 or better four times in his career, including .403 in 1923, to capture a quartet of batting titles.

- Bettered the .400 mark (.403) in 1923 to lead the league, collecting 211 hits and driving in 114 runs...in all, batted .340 or better eight times.
- Led the AL in hits in 1921 with 237 after hitting .394 to win his first batting title...also won the league batting crown in 1923, 1925 and 1927.
- From 1921-29, drove in at least 100 runs in eight out of nine seasons...drilled at least 40 doubles in eight of his last 10 seasons as a player.
- In 1927, finished runner-up to the Yankees Lou Gehrig in American League MVP balloting after hitting .398 and winning his final batting title.
- His 1921 total of 139 RBI would have led the league, but Babe Ruth drove in 171 runs that season...three times he ranked second in the AL in slugging percentage behind Ruth.
- Was sold to the Cincinnati Reds on Oct. 14, 1929, where he played in 1930 and '32...batted .333 in 1930 with 19 homers, two off his career-best, and 91 RBI.
- After his playing career, broadcasted Tiger games on the radio from 1934-51.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1952.

TIGERS INFIELD AVERAGES 115 RBI IN 1934

In 1934, when the Tigers won their fourth American League pennant behind manager and AL MVP Mickey Cochrane, the Detroit infield (first base, second base, shortstop and third base) combined for an amazing 462 RBI. That group included first baseman Hank Greenberg (139 RBI), second baseman Charlie Gehringer (127), shortstop Billy Rogell (100) and third baseman Marv Owen (96).

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

HUGHIE JENNINGS

SS/MGR, 1907-20

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1945

Ht./Wt.: 5-8/165

Born: 4/2/1869 in Pittston, PA

Full Name: Hugh Ambrose Jennings

Nickname: "Hustling Hughie"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 2/1/28 in Scranton, PA

Detroit's manager from 1907-1920, Jennings piloted teams which featured all-time greats Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Sam Crawford, and he led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.

- An outstanding shortstop in his playing days, had his best years with the National League's Baltimore Orioles between 1893 and 1899...drove in more than 100 runs three times, batted .401 in 1896 and led the league in fielding four times.
- With Detroit, served as player-manager from 1907-1918, although he only appeared in a handful of games and had just nine at-bats in those 12 years...became full-time manager for his final two seasons in a Tiger uniform.
- Although his Tigers won three straight league titles, they lost in the World Series each time, twice to the Cubs and once to the Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall posthumously in 1945 by the Veterans Committee.

AL KALINE

RF, 1953-74

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1980

Ht./Wt.: 6-2/180

Born: 12/19/34 in Baltimore, MD

Full Name: Albert William Kaline

Batted/Threw: R/R

If any player defined the Tigers during the last half-century it was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player ever elected to the Hall in his first year of eligibility. At the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20 or more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the AL MVP award both in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankee catchers Yogi Berra in '55 and Elston Howard in '63...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, The Sporting News chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in American League history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .379 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15 out of 16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and '67 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300 or better eight times and drilled 20 or more homers nine times.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time DH and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.
- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old AL record for hits by a righthanded batter.
- Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.
- Had his familiar uniform No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tiger ever to have his number retired.
- Has spent every year since 1976 in the Tigers' organization, first as a television color analyst and more recently as a special assistant to the president.

KALINE WINS BATTING TITLE AT AGE 20

In 1955, Hall-of-Famer Al Kaline had one of the best seasons of his career at the tender age of 20. That season, he became the youngest man ever to win the American League batting crown - besting the immortal Ty Cobb by one day - and took the title in the AL by a whopping 21 points with a career-best .340 batting average. In fact, his batting average led the entire major leagues, ending up two points better than the Phillies' Richie Ashburn, who won the NL crown. Kaline also hit 27 homers, drove in 102 runs and registered a career-high 200 hits that year. He wound up second in the league MVP balloting, finishing 17 points behind Yankee catcher Yogi Berra.

GEORGE KELL

3B, 1946-52

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1983

Ht./Wt.: 5-9/175

Batted/Threw: R/R

Born: 8/23/22 in Swifton, AR

Full Name: George Clyde Kell

The American League's foremost third baseman in the 1940s and '50s, George Kell is one of just eight third basemen enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Won the 1949 American League batting crown with a .343 average, nosing out Boston's Ted Williams on the final day of the season.
- Selected to 10 All-Star games, including eight straight between 1947 and 1954.
- Batted over .300 nine times and led the AL in hits in 1950 and 1951...also led the league in doubles both seasons.
- Was acquired by the Tigers on May 18, 1946, from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for outfielder Barney McCoskey.
- In seven seasons with the Tigers from 1946-52, he batted below .300 just once, 1952 when he was traded to the Red Sox just 39 games into the season.
- Known for sure hands and a strong, accurate arm, he led AL third basemen in fielding percentage seven times.
- Wore uniform No. 21 from 1946-50 and No. 7 in 1951 and '52 with the Tigers.
- Was included in an eight-player trade on June 3, 1952, in which he, Dizzy Trout, Hoot Evers and Johnny Lipon were sent from the Tigers to Boston in exchange for Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Bill Wight, Fred Hatfield and Don Lenhardt.
- Also played for the White Sox and Orioles before retiring in 1957.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1983 by the Veterans Committee.
- Began broadcasting full-time after retiring as a player and, except for 1964, called Tiger baseball every year from 1959-96...retired from broadcasting in January, 1997.
- Encountered recent hardship as his home in Swifton, AR was destroyed by fire on October 8, 2001...Kell was rescued from the blaze by a local fireman.

HEINIE MANUSH

LF, 1923-27

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1964

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/200

Batted/Threw: L/L

Born: 7/20/01 in Tuscumbia, AL

Died: 5/12/71 in Sarasota, FL

Full Name: Henry Emmett Manush

A lifetime .330 hitter, outfielder Heinie Manush played for six teams over 17 seasons but entered the Hall as a Detroit Tiger after playing his first four years there.

- Played his first three seasons in the big leagues for manager Ty Cobb and won his lone batting title in 1926 under Cobb's tutelage, batting .378...overtook Babe Ruth by going six-for-nine in a doubleheader on the last day of the season.
- In 1928, his second season with the St. Louis Browns, collected 241 hits, just 16 short of George Sisler's 1920 major league record...again batted .378 but lost the batting title by a single point to Washington's Goose Goslin.
- Topped the 200-hit mark four times in his career...also posted 40 or more doubles five times, leading the league in 1928 and '29, and topped the AL with 17 triples in 1933.
- Finished as runner-up to Jimmy Foxx for the batting title in 1933 after hitting .336...was selected to his only All-Star Game in 1934.
- In 7,654 career at-bats, fanned just 345 times (never more than 30 times in a season).
- Was traded from Detroit to the St. Louis Browns on Dec. 2, 1927, along with Lu Blue in exchange for Chick Galloway, Elam Vangilder and Harry Rice.
- Elected to the Hall in 1964 by the Veterans Committee.

THE YEAR OF MOTOWN CHAMPS, 1935

In 1935, catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane led the Detroit Tigers to their first-ever World Series title as they defeated the Chicago Cubs, four games to two.

Not only was 1935 a great year for the Tigers, but it was also a great one for the entire city of Detroit, known that year as the "City of Champions." The Detroit Lions won the National Football League championship and the National Hockey League's Detroit Red Wings won the Stanley Cup. Detroit also had a minor league hockey team, called the Olympics, win its league championship.

DETROIT TIGERS IN NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Full Name: Harold Newhouser

Nickname: "Prince Hal"

Batted/Threw: L/L

Died: 11/10/98 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

The only pitcher in major league history to win back-to-back league MVP awards, Hal Newhouser, Detroit born-and-raised, was one of the most dominant pitchers of the 1940s.

- Captured his first MVP award in 1944 after leading the majors with a 29-9 record and 187 strikeouts...his 29 victories tied George Mullin's 1909 club record.
- Named league MVP again the following season, becoming just the third AL pitcher to lead the entire major leagues in wins (25), strikeouts (212) and ERA (1.81) all in the same season....his 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched also led the majors.
- Spent 15 of his 17 big-league seasons in a Tiger uniform and during that span was a seven-time All-Star, led the AL in victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each, and hurled back-to-back 300-inning seasons in 1944 and '45.
- From 1944-48, won 20 or more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 107 complete games and 993 strikeouts...also allowed just 40 home runs and twice posted an ERA under 2.00 during that span.
- Retired in 1955 after two seasons as a reliever with Cleveland.
- On July 27, 1997, he became the fourth Tiger to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 16).
- Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1992 by the Veterans Committee.

HARWELL ENSHRINED IN COOPERSTOWN

Ernie Harwell retired as the Tigers play-by-play radio announcer following the 2002 season, his 55th season in Major League Baseball and his 42nd calling Tigers baseball.

He received the Ford C. Frick Award in 1981, presented by the Baseball Hall of Fame for broadcasting excellence. Harwell was the fifth recipient of the honor, becoming the first active broadcaster to inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Harwell was named the play-by-play broadcaster for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948, his first major league appointment. After two seasons with the Dodgers, he moved onto play-by-play work for the Giants and Orioles before coming to Detroit in 1960. He was at the microphone for Bobby Thomson's historic playoff home run in 1951, marking the first coast-to-coast telecast of a major sporting event.

He served as the Tigers radio play-by-play voice from 1960-91, before broadcasting games for Tigers television from 1993-98. Harwell returned to the radio booth for the final season at Tiger Stadium in 1999.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn; Willie Mays; Ozzie Smith; and Cal Ripken, Jr.

The Ernie Harwell Media Center is located on the lower suite level behind home plate. Access to press areas is by ramp, media elevator and stairs (to the third-base side of home).

- No photography is permitted in the media center without prior approval from the Tigers Media Relations Department.
- A workroom, into which the press elevator opens on the lower suite level, is provided for media use directly behind the media center. Please ask Tigers Media Relations for assistance regarding any photocopying or faxing that you may need.
- When appropriate, seating charts will be posted, and some seats will be permanently reserved for the regular season. However, please contact a Tigers Media Relations representative for assistance with seating location.
- The media center includes a designated, partitioned area for electronic media located on the first-base side of the box.
- A number of credit card/collect telephones are available for media use in the media center and work room.
- Game information packages will be available on the back counter of the media center approximately two hours before the game. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and post-game notes will be distributed in the media center, normally about 15 minutes after the game's final pitch.

Clubhouses

Entrance to both clubhouses is on the Comerica Park service level, accessible by media elevator, ramp or stairs. The Tigers clubhouse is located behind third base, while the visitors clubhouse is behind first base.

- Pre- and post-game access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball.
- All still photography and pre-game video photography is prohibited in the Tigers clubhouse without prior consent from the Tigers Media Relations Department.

Pre-Game Field Access

Only media with credentials permitting field access will be allowed on the Comerica Park playing field. All media must clear the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

Television Coverage

All local television stations are prohibited from shooting and distributing footage inside Comerica Park beginning 30 minutes prior to each contest and until all broadcast television rightsholders have signed off the air.

- Footage from Comerica Park property and the concourse area are permitted as long as the playing field does not appear in any way in the shot.
- Television cameras on and around field level are limited to natural light whenever players are on the field.
- All local television stations desiring to shoot inside Comerica Park must request to do so in advance through the Detroit Tigers Media Relations Department.

Only those with credentials expressly permitting in-game field access will be allowed in the photo wells. Two photo wells are located adjacent to each dugout, one on the infield side and one on the outfield side of each.

- In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. Enter and exit the field via the home plate entrance only.
- All photographers must be inside the photo wells at all times.
- While the game is in progress, photographers on the field may only change location between innings. Those photographers on the field who change location at any other time without prior approval from the Tigers Media Relations Department are subject to immediate revocation of credentials.
- The installation and placement of parabolic microphones and remote equipment is limited to camera wells and must not interfere or block house video. All equipment must remain in the wells and not extend out toward the playing field.
- No ball — in-play or dead — should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.

Media Hospitality

Media hospitality is in the dining room, located in the back of the Ernie Harwell Media Center. There is a charge per meal.

- Open for meal service to accredited media members two hours before first pitch.

Media Guides

Media guides of the Tigers, Major League Baseball and other teams are available in the Ernie Harwell Media Center from Tigers Media Relations personnel.

DETROIT TIGERS BROADCASTERS

Jim Price

A member of the Tigers 1968 World Series champions, Jim Price begins his 15th season overall on Tigers broadcasts and his ninth full season on the Tigers Radio Network.

- Originally joined Frank Beckmann on the Tigers radio broadcasts in June, 1998...had spent the first part of that season as a feature reporter on FOX Sports Net's pre-game and "Tigers Weekly" programs.
- Began his Tigers broadcasting career on PASS cable telecasts in 1993, serving as color commentator...broadcast Tigers games on cable for five seasons.
- Was also the third man in the booth during the Tigers over-the-air broadcasts on WKBD-TV from 1995-97...filled in for a handful of games as play-by-play announcer in 1997.
- Played five major league seasons, all with the Tigers...played 64 games, 42 of them at catcher, for the 1968 team that defeated St. Louis in the Fall Classic.
- Was purchased by the Tigers in April of 1967 after seven minor league seasons with the Pirates.
- Named Minor League Player of the Year in 1963 while with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.
- A native of Harrisburg, PA, he was a three-sport star at Hershey (PA) High School...refused a number of college football scholarship offers to sign with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1960.
- Other broadcast credits include work as play-by-play man on Chicago White Sox cable telecasts, color commentary for ESPN college baseball and anchoring weekend sports on Detroit's WJBK-TV.
- Assists in the Tigers front office efforts, focusing on baseball participation camps.
- Inducted into the Kinston (NC) Baseball Hall of Fame in 1995.
- He and his wife, Lisa, founded a non-profit foundation called Jack's Place in October of 2002 to benefit children with autism...the foundation, named after their son who was diagnosed with autism, hopes to provide all the services a person or family affected by the neurological disorder would need.
- Because of the tremendous community and corporate support, the foundation's five-year plan was reached in a little over a year...Jack's Place has also formed a partnership with Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan...this partnership enables Jack's Place to deliver programming and services to individuals and families with the Autism Spectrum Disorder, including soccer, basketball, swimming, baseball, arts and theater...programs also include family counseling, sibling groups, social skills groups, seminars and training sessions for parents, caregivers, physicians, teachers and counselors...over 3,200 children and adults have participated in the program...the foundation is working to build their own 55,000 square foot building on the campus of Oakland University that will house "Quality of Life" programs, the first of its kind in the country.

Dan Dickerson

After making his Tigers broadcasting debut in 2000, veteran Michigan sports announcer Dan Dickerson returns for his eighth season in the booth and his fifth season as the lead play-by-play voice of the Tigers.

- Named Michigan Sportscaster of the Year in 2005 and 2006 by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.
- Dickerson previously worked for five years with former Tigers flagship WJR-AM, in a variety of roles.
- Served as co-host of "WJR Sportswrap," a nightly call-in show.
- Worked as sideline reporter and substitute play-by-play announcer for University of Michigan football for WJR and spent two seasons as play-by-play announcer for University of Michigan basketball...was formerly WJR's morning sports anchor.
- Spent six-and-a-half years with Detroit's WWJ-AM from 1988-95, hosting a post-game call-in show following Detroit Lions broadcasts and serving as a sideline reporter for University of Michigan football.
- Also anchored WWJ's news and sports on the weekends and served as general assignment news reporter.
- Has won several awards from the Associated Press including "Best Live Broadcast, Sporting Event" (1996 and 1998) and "Best Coverage of Breaking News" and "Best Sports Feature" (1994).
- Began his sports broadcasting career at WCUZ Radio in Grand Rapids, MI, working at the station from 1982-88.
- Broadcast play-by-play for high school football and basketball for WCUZ, anchored afternoon drive sports and served in the station's news department as reporter and assignment editor/assistant news director.
- Started in radio in 1980 with WMAX radio in Grand Rapids, covering general assignment news and anchoring afternoon newscasts.
- Earned his bachelor of arts degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1980.
- Resides in Clarkston, MI with wife Lori and children Rachel (1/13/95) and Justin (4/9/98).
- Co-host of "Tigertown," a weekly off-season talk show on WXYT that focuses on Tigers news and baseball hot stove topics.

DETROIT TIGERS BROADCASTERS

Mario Impemba

Detroit native Mario Impemba enters his sixth season as the play-by-play announcer on FSN Detroit's Emmy-winning Tigers coverage, including capturing his own Michigan Emmy in June 2006 in the "Sports Play-by-Play category."

- Impemba provided studio and on-location reports, interviews and analysis throughout FSN's postgame coverage during the Tigers playoff run in 2006.
- Beyond his Tigers duties, Impemba has done play-by-play on FSN coverage of MHSAA football and basketball championship games, as well as CCHA hockey.
- Before joining the FSN broadcast team, Impemba spent the previous seven seasons as the radio voice of the Anaheim Angels...also served as a fill-in TV play-by-play announcer for the Angels during his final three years in Anaheim.
- Was rated among Southern California's best play-by-play announcers in 1999 by the Los Angeles Daily News.
- Prior to joining the Angels in 1995, he spent four seasons (1991-94) calling games for the Tucson Toros of the Pacific Coast League.
- Was the voice of the Quad City Angels Single A team in Davenport, IA from 1989-90...spent 1987-88 in Peoria, IL, where he announced games for the Single A Peoria Chiefs.
- Previously served as sports director at WXCL Radio in Peoria...also did play-by-play for the Peoria Rivermen of the International Hockey League.
- Professional career began in 1985 at KVOP Radio in Plainview, TX.
- Is a 1985 graduate of Michigan State where as a student he served as sports director at campus radio station WLFT, also providing play-by-play for Spartans baseball, basketball and hockey.
- Is 44 years old...born in Detroit and moved to nearby Sterling Heights in the mid-1970s, graduating from Stevenson High School in 1981.
- Impemba and his wife Cathy have two sons, Brett (13) and Daniel (10) and reside in Macomb County.

Rod Allen

Former Tigers outfielder Rod Allen enters his fifth season as analyst on FSN Detroit's telecasts, marking his 30th season in professional baseball...Allen was the recipient of his own Michigan Emmy in June 2006 in the "Sports Analyst" category.

- Allen provided studio and on-location analysis throughout FSN's postgame coverage during the Tigers playoff run in 2006.
- In addition to his FSN Detroit analyst duties, Allen filled that role for a FOX Saturday Game of the Week regional telecast on July 22, 2006 featuring the Detroit Tigers and Oakland Athletics.
- Before joining the Tigers, he spent five seasons (1998-2002) with the Arizona Diamondbacks as a television and radio analyst...served as the commentator on the Diamondbacks radio broadcasts in the 2001 post-season, including the National League Championship series against the St. Louis Cardinals and the World Series against the New York Yankees.
- In addition to his work with the Diamondbacks, Allen provided analysis on Fox Saturday Baseball regional telecasts and the National League Division Series between the Atlanta Braves and Houston Astros.
- Prior to his work as a broadcaster, Allen spent four seasons as a hitting instructor in the Florida Marlins organization from 1992-95.
- Allen spent the last three years of his playing career with Hiroshima in Japan's Central League...clubbed a pair of home runs against Seibu in the 1991 Japan Series and set a Japanese regular-season record with four home runs in four consecutive at-bats during his tenure in the league.
- Hit .296 in 27 at-bats during a 15-game stint as an outfielder and designated hitter with the World Champion Detroit Tigers in 1984.
- Enjoyed two other stints in the majors with the Seattle Mariners in 1983 and the Cleveland Indians in 1988.
- Selected by the Chicago White Sox in the sixth round of the June 1977 draft.
- Allen and his wife Adrian have a son, Andrew (17) and a daughter, Rachel (15)...also has a daughter Rhonda and a son Rod Jr., a 2004 draftee of the New York Yankees, who spent the 2006 season in the Chicago White Sox organization with Winston-Salem (Single A, Carolina League).

SCHOOLBOY ROWE WINS 16 STRAIGHT

Former Tiger Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe is one of five pitchers who still share the American League record for most consecutive games won in a season with 16. Rowe is joined by the Washington Senators' Walter Johnson (1912), Smokey Joe Wood of the Boston Red Sox (also 1912), the Philadelphia Athletics Lefty Grove (1931) and the New York Yankees Roger Clemens (2001). Rowe tied the feat on August 25, 1934, against Washington in a 4-2 Tigers victory, and although Rowe's streak was subsequently stopped by the A's in game two of an August 29 doubleheader, he finished the season with 24 victories.

DETROIT TIGERS BROADCASTERS

John Keating

Entering his 10th season as the scene-setter for FSN Detroit's productions of Tigers baseball is the award-winning John Keating, host of the live, 30-minute Tigers Pregame show....Keating also hosts and narrates segments for FSN's Emmy-award winning Tigers Weekly.

- Keating provided on-location reports and interviews throughout FSN's postgame coverage during the Tigers playoff run in 2006...he was on the scene during on-field and clubhouse celebrations following the Tigers clinching of a playoff spot in Kansas City, as well as following the ALDS and ALCS series clinchers against the New York Yankees and Oakland Athletics.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

LARRY PARRISH

Toledo Manager

After serving as a major league scout for the Tigers from 2000-02, Larry Parrish returned to the dugout as the manager at Triple A Toledo in 2003 and guided the Mud Hens to the International League's championship in both 2005 and 2006. He garnered league manager of the year honors in 2005, in addition to being named the minor league manager of the year by The Sporting News.

Parrish joined the Tigers coaching staff when the roster expanded during September in both 2003 and 2004 and managed the club during Alan Trammell's two-day absence to attend his mother's funeral in 2003. He led Detroit to wins in both games over the Kansas City Royals.

Served as Detroit's interim skipper in September of 1998, before being hired as the club's manager for the 1999 season. Originally joined the Tigers major league coaching staff as bench coach in 1997.

Parrish spent the first half of the 1994 and 1996 seasons, as well as all of 1995 as Detroit's minor league roving hitting instructor, interrupted by stints as manager at Toledo and Double A Jacksonville in the second half of the 1994 and 1996 seasons, respectively. He led Jacksonville to a division title in 1996, and ultimately the Southern League championship.

He joined the Tigers organization as the manager at Single A Niagara Falls in both 1992 and 1993, leading the Rapids to the New York-Penn League championship in 1993 after earning a berth in the post-season as the wild card winner.

A two-time all-star selection, he hit .263 with 256 home runs during a 15-year career with Montreal, Texas and Boston.

MATT WALBECK

Erie Manager

Matt Walbeck will guide Double A Erie during the 2007 season, his first season with the SeaWolves and fourth season as a manager in the Tigers organization. He managed Single A West Michigan in his first three seasons (2004-06) as a manager. The Whitecaps captured the Midwest League championship under his guidance in both 2004 and 2006, while advancing to the league's playoffs as the wild card winner of the second half during the 2005 season.

Walbeck was named the best managerial prospect in the Midwest League by Baseball America in both 2005 and 2006, in addition to be tabbed the league's manager of the year in 2006.

He concluded a 17-year playing career in 2003, announcing his retirement to remain in the Tigers organization as the Whitecaps manager. Walbeck saw action in 11 seasons (1993-2003) at the major league level as a catcher with the Chicago Cubs (1993), Minnesota Twins (1994-96), Tigers (1997, 2002-03), Anaheim Angels (1998-2000) and Philadelphia Phillies (2001).

Walbeck finished his major league career with a .233 batting average and .991 fielding percentage behind the plate.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

KEVIN BRADSHAW

Lakeland Manager

Kevin Bradshaw returns for his 14th year as a manager in the Tigers system in 2007 at the helm of Single A Lakeland. He spent the previous three seasons (2004-06) as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Tigers, leading the club to a North Division title in 2006. Prior to his three-year stint with the Gulf Coast League Tigers, he spent two seasons as the manager at Double A Erie (2002-03).

Named the 2000 Dwight Lowry Award winner as the Tigers Player Development Man of the Year, Bradshaw led the 2000 Gulf Coast League Tigers to a second-place finish in the Eastern Division with a record of 34-26. In 1999, he led Single A Oneonta to within a single game of the New York-Penn League playoffs in its first year as a Detroit affiliate.

Bradshaw has spent his entire baseball career with the Detroit organization, managing for 13 seasons, coaching for five seasons and playing four years as a Tigers farmhand. He began his coaching career in 1990 with the Double A London squad when the team went on to win the Eastern League title. During the next four seasons Bradshaw coached four different teams; Bristol in 1991, Toledo in 1992, Lakeland in 1993 and Trenton in 1994.

As a player, Bradshaw worked his way up to the Triple A level before a torn achilles tendon prompted him to retire. Prior to his retirement, he played four seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a .241 lifetime average.

TOM BROOKENS

West Michigan Manager

Tom Brookens will serve as the manager at Single A West Michigan during the 2007 season, his first season with the Whitecaps and third as a manager in the Tigers minor league system. He served as the manager at Single A Oneonta during the previous two seasons (2005-06). The 2005 season marked his first professional managerial or coaching assignment and he guided the Tigers to the Stedler Division championship in the New York-Penn League.

He played 12 seasons as an infielder at the major league level with the Tigers (1979-88), New York Yankees (1989) and Cleveland Indians (1990). Brookens finished his career with a .246 batting average, 71 home runs and 431 RBI in 1,336 games.

Brookens was a member of the Tigers World Series Championship club in 1984, batting .246 with five home runs and 26 RBI in 113 games.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

GLENN ADAMS

Erie Coach

The 2007 season will mark the first season for Glenn Adams as a coach at Double A Erie and in the Tigers organization.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he most recently served as the minor league hitting coordinator in the Seattle Mariners organization for six seasons (2001-06). Adams spent six seasons (1995-2000) as a coach at Triple A Iowa in the Chicago Cubs organization. He served six seasons (1989-94) as the minor league hitting coordinator in the Minnesota Twins organization before joining the Cubs.

Adams began his professional coaching career by managing for three seasons (1986-88) at the minor league level with the Cleveland Indians organization. He managed Rookie level Burlington (1986) and Single A Waterloo (1987) for one season each, before taking over as the manager at Single A Kinston in 1988. Adams guided Kinston to the Carolina League championship as his club posted the league's best overall record.

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1968 draft, Adams played eight seasons at the major league level with the San Francisco Giants (1975-76), Twins (1977-81) and Toronto Blue Jays (1982). He compiled a .280 batting average in 661 games at the major league level.

MARCOS AGUASVIVAS

DSL Tigers Pitching Coach

Marcos Aguasvivas returns for his sixth season as the pitching coach with the Dominican Summer League Tigers, a post he was named to in 2002.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he served as the pitching coach of the Dominican Summer League Devil Rays for four seasons (1998-2001).

BRITT BURNS

Toledo Pitching Coach

Britt Burns returns for his sixth season with the Tigers organization, serving as the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo in 2007 after spending the previous three seasons in that role at Single A Lakeland. He served as the pitching coach at Double A Erie in 2003 after he joined the Tigers in May of 2002 as the pitching coach at Toledo.

He spent nine seasons as a coach in the Florida Marlins system from 1993-2001. Burns worked as the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Marlins in 1993, for two seasons each at Single A Brevard County from 1994-95 and Double A Portland from 1996-97, the minor league pitching coordinator from 1998-2000 and the pitching coach at Triple A Calgary during the 2001 season.

Burns pitched for eight seasons at the major league level with the Chicago White Sox and posted a 70-60 record with a 3.66 ERA in 193 appearances. He debuted for Chicago at the age of 19 in 1978 and garnered Rookie Pitcher of the Year honors from The Sporting News in 1980. Burns participated in the 1981 All-Star Game and pitched for the White Sox during the American League Championship Series in 1983.

Traded to the New York Yankees following the 1985 season, his career ended prematurely due to a degenerative hip condition.

RAY BURRIS

West Michigan Pitching Coach

Ray Burris will serve as the pitching coach at Single A West Michigan in his second season in the Tigers organization. He served as the pitching coach at Single A Oneonta in 2006.

Served as a minor league pitching coach for the Milwaukee Brewers in 1988-89, before joining the club's major league staff as a bullpen coach for two seasons (1990-91). Additionally, he worked as a roving instructor, special assistant to the general manager, advance scout and community development employee for Milwaukee. In 1992, Burris joined the Texas Rangers as an assistant pitching coach before moving to the front office for three years (1993-95) as the Rangers special assistant for community development and special projects and as assistant to the vice president of community development.

Burris' most recent coaching assignment before joining the Tigers organization was as a roving pitching instructor at the minor league level with the St. Louis Cardinals for two seasons (2000-01).

A veteran of 15 seasons at the major league level, Burris saw action with the Chicago Cubs (1973-79), New York Yankees (1979), New York Mets (1979-80), Montreal Expos (1981-83), Oakland Athletics (1984), Milwaukee Brewers (1985, 1987) and St. Louis Cardinals (1986).

Since 1996, Burris has owned and operated his businesses, the Academy of Sports Instruction and B&A Sports Promotions.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

BASILIO CABRERA

GCL Tigers Coach

Basilio Cabrera enters his 23rd season in the Tigers organization. He played in the Tigers system for eight years (1985-92) and the 2007 season marks his 15th as a minor league coach.

Cabrera will serve as a coach for the Gulf Coast League Tigers in 2007, after spending the previous three seasons as a coach at Single A Oneonta.

In 1993, Cabrera began his coaching career with Single A Bristol. He spent a season each with Single A Fayetteville, the Gulf Coast League Tigers and Single A Lakeland, before returning to the Gulf Coast League in 1997. After three seasons (1997-99) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers, Cabrera spent four seasons as a coach at Lakeland (2000-03).

As a player, Cabrera enjoyed three seasons (1987-89) at the minor league level in which he collected a total of 113 stolen bases, highlighted by the 1989 season, when he swiped 45 bases. He played Double A ball in each of his last three active seasons as a player and retired following the 1992 campaign.

FRANCISCO CABRERA

DSL Tigers Coach

Francisco Cabrera returns for his third season as a coach with the Dominican Summer League Tigers in 2007.

He managed the Dominican Summer League Cardinals for three seasons (1999-2001), compiling an 86-125 record.

Cabrera played five seasons at the major league level as a catcher and first baseman with the Toronto Blue Jays (1989) and Atlanta Braves (1989-93). He played in 196 games during his career and batted .254 with 17 home runs and 62 RBI.

JOE COLEMAN

Lakeland Pitching Coach

A veteran of 42 seasons in professional baseball, Joe Coleman joins the Tigers organization in 2007 to serve as the pitching coach at Single A Lakeland.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he spent the previous seven seasons (2000-06) as the pitching coach at Triple A Durham in the Tampa Bay Devil Rays organization. He served as the bullpen coach for the Anaheim Angels for three seasons (1997-99), his second stint in that role (also, 1988-90). He returned to the Angels as a special assignment scout in 1995 after spending four seasons (1991-94) as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals. He assumed the role of Angels pitching coach on August 6, 1996 following the resignation of manager Marcel Lachemann, a post he held through the end of the season.

He began his coaching career in the Seattle Mariners organization as a pitching coach at Triple A Spokane in 1980. He served in that capacity in both 1981 and 1982, with Spokane becoming an Angels affiliate in his final season. He managed Single A Peoria in 1983, before serving as the Angels roving minor league pitching instructor for four seasons (1984-87).

A first-round selection of the Washington Senators in 1965, Coleman pitched for 15 seasons at the major league level with the Senators (1965-70), Tigers (1971-76), Chicago Cubs (1976), Oakland Athletics (1977-78), Toronto Blue Jays (1978), San Francisco Giants (1979) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1979). He compiled a 142-135 record and 3.70 ERA in 484 appearances during his career.

JORGE CORDOVA

VSL Tigers Pitching Coach

The 2007 season will mark Jorge Cordova's second season as the pitching coach with the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers.

Cordova pitched for eight seasons at the minor league level with the New York Yankees (1996), Florida Marlins (1998-2000), Cincinnati Reds (2000-02) and Tigers (2003-04). He compiled a 44-26 record and 3.30 ERA in 234 outings during his career.

BENNY DISTEFANO

West Michigan Coach

Benny Distefano will serve as a coach at Single A West Michigan in 2007, his second season in the Tigers organization. He served as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers during the 2006 season, his first professional coaching assignment.

A veteran of five seasons at the major league level, Distefano saw action with the Pittsburgh Pirates (1984, 1986, 1988-89) and Houston Astros (1992).

Selected by the Pirates in the second round of the June 1982 draft, he concluded his career with a .228 batting average in 240 games.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

LEON "BULL" DURHAM

Toledo Coach

Leon "Bull" Durham returns for his seventh season both as a coach at Triple A Toledo and with the Tigers organization in 2007.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization in 2001, Durham spent five seasons as a coach in the Anaheim Angels organization. Durham was a coach with Triple A Edmonton from 1999-2000, and was previously a coach with Triple A Vancouver in 1997-98 and Single A Lake Elsinore during the 1996 season.

Durham played 10 seasons in the major leagues with St. Louis (1980, 1989), the Chicago Cubs (1981-88) and Cincinnati (1989). He finished his major league career with a .277 batting average and 147 home runs.

Durham belted 20-or-more home runs in five of his seasons, including a career-high 27 home runs during the 1987 season. He belted two home runs during the National League Championship Series in 1984 as the Cubs lost to San Diego in five games. He was selected to the National League All-Star team twice in his career, 1982 and 1983. Durham was named to The Sporting News' Silver Slugger team following the 1982 season after he batted a career-high .312 with 22 home runs.

TOBY HARRAH

Hitting Coordinator

Toby Harrah returns for his fourth season as the minor league hitting coordinator, a position he previously held with the Tigers organization for two seasons (1997-98).

In 2003, he served as a coach for the Fort Worth Cats, an independent league club in the Central League. Harrah was the Colorado Rockies bench coach under Buddy Bell for three seasons (2000-02) after spending the 1999 season as the Cincinnati Reds roving minor league hitting instructor.

Harrah joined the Tigers organization in 1997 after one season as the third base coach with the Cleveland Indians in 1996. He joined the staff in Detroit as the hitting coach on July 31, 1998, after Larry Herndon was dismissed.

He was named the International League's manager of the year in 1995 after leading Triple A Norfolk of the New York Mets organization to an 86-56 record.

Harrah spent eight seasons (1987-94) as a manager, coach and hitting instructor in the Texas Rangers organization following his retirement in 1986. Harrah managed Triple A Oklahoma City in 1987-88 before joining the Rangers major league coaching staff as the first base coach in 1989. After three seasons as the first base coach, Harrah was named the bench coach for the 1992 season. He served as the club's interim manager during the second half of the 1992 season following the firing of Bobby Valentine on July 9 and the club finished 32-44 during his tenure. Harrah spent his final two seasons in the Texas organization as a roving minor league hitting instructor.

A four-time all-star (1972, 1975-76, 1982) during his 17-year major league career, Harrah finished with a .264 batting average and 195 home runs. He saw action with the Washington Senators (1969, 1971), Rangers (1972-78, 85-86), Indians (1979-83) and New York Yankees (1984) during his career.

Harrah was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1988.

LARRY HERNDON

Lakeland Coach

Larry Herndon returned to the Tigers organization as a coach at Single A Lakeland for the 2005 season, a position he will hold for the third straight season in 2007. Herndon served as the Tigers hitting coach at the major league level for seven seasons (1992-98), a position he was originally named to on October 9, 1991.

A veteran of 14 seasons in the major leagues as an outfielder, he compiled a .274 batting average and 107 home runs.

Herndon broke into the majors with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1974, before playing six seasons with the San Francisco Giants (1976-81) and seven with the Tigers (1982-88). He batted .280 in 125 games as a member of Detroit's World Series champion club in 1984.

He was selected the National League Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News in 1976 after hitting .288 in 115 games with the Giants.

MARK JOHNSON

Oneonta Pitching Coach

Mark Johnson joins the Tigers organization as the pitching coach at Single A Oneonta in 2007, his first professional coaching assignment.

A first-round selection by the Houston Astros in the June 1996 draft, Johnson pitched nine seasons with the Astros (1997), Florida Marlins (1998), New York Yankees (1999), Tigers (2000-03, 2005), Milwaukee Brewers (2002) and Los Angeles Dodgers (2004) organizations.

Johnson's lone major league experience was nine appearances during the 2000 season with the Tigers.

RAFAEL LANDESTOY

Infield Coordinator

Rafael Landestoy returns to the Tigers organization for his eighth season as the minor league infield coordinator, although his stint during the 2002 season was cut short due to his promotion to Detroit as the major league club's first base and infield coach on April 9.

For the first half of the 1999 campaign, Landestoy served as the Diamondbacks outfield and baserunning coordinator, and for the second half of the season was the first base and hitting coach for the Arizona League Diamondbacks. In 1998, he was the Diamondbacks outfield and baserunning coordinator.

Landestoy has previously worked with six different organizations during his 19-year coaching career, making stops at the major league and minor league levels including a stint as manager at Single A St. Lucie (1994-95), when he compiled a record of 132-138.

His other coaching experience includes serving as a major league coach for the New York Mets in 1996, first base coach for the Montreal Expos in 1989, and minor league infield and first base coach for the New York Yankees in 1986.

A middle infielder, Landestoy played eight major league campaigns for Los Angeles, Cincinnati and Houston. His 1980 season with the Astros was his best as he appeared in 149 games, batted .247 and logged 23 stolen bases as Houston reached the National League Championship Series. He also played in the 1977 World Series with the Dodgers.

JESUS LAYA

VSL Tigers Coach

Jesus Laya returns to the Tigers organization in 2007 and for his second season in the organization as a coach with the Venezuelan Summer League Tigers. Additionally, he serves as a scout for the organization in Venezuela.

Before joining the Tigers in 2006, he spent the previous four seasons (2002-05) with the Boston Red Sox organization, most recently serving as a coach with the Venezuelan Summer League Red Sox. Laya served as an international scout in his first three years with the Red Sox.

Laya joined the Florida Marlins organization as an international scout in 1997, a capacity he served in until joining the Red Sox in 2002.

JON MATLACK

Pitching Coordinator

The 2007 season marks Jon Matlack's 12th season as a coach in the Detroit organization, his 11th in his current role as the minor league pitching coordinator.

In 1996, he served as pitching coach for the Tigers, his first coaching assignment in the majors, before being reassigned late that season and named roving pitching instructor in 1997.

From 1988-95, Matlack served as a minor league pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox and San Diego Padres, spending 1995 with Triple A Las Vegas.

A lefthanded pitcher, Matlack enjoyed a 13-year major league career with the New York Mets and Texas Rangers. He was voted the National League Rookie of the Year in 1972 and was a three-time all-star selection (1974-76).

In 1973 with the Mets, he tied a NLCS record for fewest hits allowed in a game when he fired a two-hit shutout versus the Reds. In the 1973 World Series against Oakland, Matlack made three appearances with a 2.16 ERA.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

FRAY PENICHE

DSL Tigers Coach

Fray Peniche returns for his eighth season as a coach with the Dominican Summer League Tigers, a post he was first appointed to in 2000. He served as a coach at Single A Oneonta in 1999.

He played four seasons at the minor league level with the Tigers after signing as a non-drafted free agent on December 3, 1994. Peniche finished with a .208 batting average in 114 games in action with the Gulf Coast League Tigers (1995-97) and Single A Jamestown (1998).

BRIAN PETERSON

Performance Enhancement Instructor

Brian Peterson joined the Tigers organization as the performance enhancement instructor in 2003. The 2007 season marks Peterson's 26th season in professional baseball.

Prior to his appointment as the Tigers performance enhancement instructor, Peterson worked nine seasons in the Marlins organization from 1993-2001. During his tenure with the Marlins, he served as the pitching coach for Single A Kane County from 1993-97 and Double A Portland in 1998 before being named the performance enhancement instructor from 1999-2001.

His coaching career began with Kansas City's Double A affiliate in Memphis during the 1990-91 seasons as the club's pitching coach. In 1992, he was the pitching coach with Salt Lake, an independent team in the rookie Pioneer League.

Peterson has a master's degree in counseling psychology from the University of South Dakota.

LUIS QUINONES

Oneonta Coach

Luis Quinones joins the Tigers organization as a coach at Single A Oneonta in 2007.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he spent three seasons in the San Diego Padres organization. Quinones managed the Dominican Summer League Padres in 2006 after serving as a coach with the Arizona League Padres the previous two seasons.

Quinones' professional coaching career began in the Cincinnati Reds organization in 2000 as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Reds. He spent the following two seasons (2001-02) as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Reds.

He saw action at the major league level with the Oakland Athletics (1983), San Francisco Giants (1986), Chicago Cubs (1987), Reds (1988-91) and Minnesota Twins (1992). Quinones was a member of the 1990 World Series Champion Reds.

MIKE ROJAS

Catching Coordinator

The 2007 season will mark Mike Rojas' fourth season in the Tigers organization, his first as the minor league catching coordinator. He served as the manager of Single A Lakeland during the previous two seasons (2005-06), after spending the 2004 season as the manager at Single A Oneonta.

He was selected the Florida State League's manager of the year in 2005 after leading Lakeland to the league's best overall record and first-place finishes in both halves of the season. Additionally, Rojas was named the best managerial prospect in the league by Baseball America.

Rojas managed in the Cincinnati Reds organization during both the 1999 and 2000 seasons at Single A Rockford and Double A Chattanooga, respectively.

He served as a manager at Single A Auburn (1997) and Single A Quad City (1998) in the Houston Astros organization following four seasons (1992-95) as a manager in the Chicago White Sox organization. Rojas managed the Gulf Coast League White Sox for three seasons (1992-94) and Single A Hickory for one (1995).

Following four seasons as a minor league catcher with the Oakland A's (1983-84) and Toronto Blue Jays (1985-86), Rojas retired and joined St. Thomas University in Miami as an assistant coach in 1987. He served in that position until joining the White Sox organization in 1992.

Rojas is the son of former major league player and coach Cookie Rojas.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

GENE ROOF

Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator

Gene Roof begins his 22nd consecutive season in the Tigers organization in 2007. He will serve as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator, a role he returned to in 2001 after last holding the position early in the 1997 season.

In 2000, Roof managed Double A Jacksonville and led the Suns to the East Division title in the second half of the season. The Suns advanced to the Southern League Championship Series, narrowly being defeated by the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx. He managed Triple A Toledo from 1997-99 after he took over as the Mud Hens manager in June of 1997 when Glenn Ezell left the team to undergo heart surgery. Before taking over for Ezell, Roof had served as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator since 1996.

Prior to his appointment as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator, Roof spent four seasons from 1992-95 as Detroit's major league first base coach. His Tigers roots run even deeper as Roof spent one season as the manager for Double A London (1991) and two seasons at Single A Fayetteville (1989-90).

As a player, Roof enjoyed a brief major league career, playing in parts of three seasons for the St. Louis Cardinals (1981-83) and Montreal Expos (1983). He collected a base hit in his first major league plate appearance on September 5, 1981, off the Dodgers Jerry Reuss. Baseball is in the Roof family, as Gene is one of five brothers to play professional ball. His brother Phil played 15 years as a major league catcher.

GREG SABAT

Tigertown Pitching Coordinator/GCL Tigers Pitching Coach

Greg Sabat begins his 11th season as the pitching coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers, while adding the role of Tigertown Pitching Coordinator in 2007.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization in 1997, he spent three seasons as pitching coach while adding interim head coach during his final two seasons at St. John's University (NY).

International coaching experience is one of Sabat's strengths. In 1995, he served as pitching coach for Team USA at the Pan-American Games in Argentina. He also managed three different clubs during a 12-year stretch (1982-93) in Italy, guiding the clubs to a collective five national championships.

Additionally, Sabat served as the pitching coach for Hermosillo in the Mexican Winter League during the 1988-89 season, guiding a pitching staff that included Curt Schilling.

Sabat, who is fluent in Spanish and Italian as well as English, pitched professionally for four seasons (1979-82) in Columbia and Venezuela.

A.J. SAGER

Erie Pitching Coach

Former Tigers pitcher A.J. Sager will serve as the pitching coach at Double A Erie in 2007, his sixth season in the organization. He spent his first five seasons (2002-06) in the organization as the pitching coach with Single A West Michigan.

He pitched professionally for 12 seasons from 1988-99, logging time in the following four organizations: San Diego, Colorado, Detroit and Cincinnati.

In 123 lifetime major league appearances with San Diego (1994), Colorado (1995) and Detroit (1996-98), Sager posted a 12-15 record, 5.36 ERA and five saves.

Sager completed his seventh season as color analyst for the University of Toledo football radio network in 2006.

LAURIE SOLTMAN

Coordinator of International Player Programs

Laurie Soltman enters her third season with the Tigers organization as the coordinator of international player programs.

She spent seven seasons with the Florida Marlins organization after joining the club in September of 1992 in the media relations department. Soltman was named player development assistant in 1994, holding that position until being named the coordinator of player program development in September of 1999.

Soltman was an intern in the Pittsburgh Pirates broadcasting department for four years (1987-90), before serving as the general manager of the Gate City Pioneers in Pocatello, ID in 1990. In 1991, she was the director of marketing for the Sumter Flyers in the South Atlantic League.

She earned a bachelor's degree in history from the College of William & Mary in 1989. Following the 1996 season, Soltman attended graduate school at Penn State University and earned a master's degree in teaching english as a second language and became certified in chemical dependency counseling.

TOLEDO MUD HENS (AAA)

THE SEASON: Toledo tied with Indianapolis for the lead in the International League's West Division with a 76-66 record (.535) during the regular season, before advancing to the playoffs after defeating Indianapolis in a one-game playoff and ultimately capturing the Governors Cup as the league champion by defeating Charlotte and Rochester in the playoffs. The Mud Hens bested Charlotte in the opening round 3-1 before defeating Rochester 3-2 in the finals. Toledo lost a one-game playoff to Tucson to determine the overall Triple A champion. Righthanded pitchers Chad Durbin and Lee Gardner and outfielders Ryan Ludwick and Ryan Raburn represented Toledo at the Triple A All-Star Game, while first baseman Josh Phelps earned a spot on the league's post-season all-star squad.

THE BATS: Toledo led the International League with 152 home runs. Phelps finished second in the league with a .308 batting average and .532 slugging percentage, while he was third with 143 hits and 90 RBI and tied for third with 24 home runs. In 50 games during June and July, Phelps hit .353 (67/190) with 26 runs scored, eight doubles, three triples, 14 home runs and 45 RBI. Ludwick was second in the league with 28 home runs and 64 extra-base hits, while he was third with 81 runs scored and 34 doubles. Ludwick earned IL Player of the Week honors for August 21-27 after hitting .400 (10x25) with seven runs scored, four doubles, four home runs and 11 RBI. Third baseman Mike Hessman tied for third in the league with 24 home runs. Outfielder David Espinosa tied for fourth in the league with seven triples. Raburn combined to hit .319 (65x204) with 32 runs scored, 16 doubles, two triples, 10 home runs and 35 RBI in 52 games during May and June. Outfielder Alexis Gomez belted four home runs on August 7 at Columbus to match an International League record.

THE ARMS: Durbin led all league hurlers with 149 strikeouts, while he tied for the lead with two shutouts, finished second with 185.0 innings pitched, tied for second with two complete games, fifth with a 3.11 ERA and tied for fifth with 11 wins. Gardner tied for the league lead with 30 saves, while he tied for second with 58 appearances. Righthanded pitcher Zach Miner was selected IL Pitcher of the Week for April 17-23 after he won both of his starts and limited the opposition to an unearned run in 11.0 innings of work. Lefthanded pitcher Wilfredo Ledezma finished 2-0 with a 1.20 ERA (15.0IP/2ER) in two starts to garner IL Pitcher of the Week honors for June 5-11. Righthanded pitcher Humberto Sanchez held the opposition scoreless over 13.1 innings as he won both starts to earn IL Pitcher of the Week honors for June 12-18. Righthanded pitcher Jordan Tata fanned 11 batters in seven shutout innings to earn the win over Indianapolis on June 30 to earn IL Pitcher of the Week honors for June 26-July 2.

ERIE SEAWOLVES (AAA)

THE SEASON: The SeaWolves finished the season with a 60-81 record (.426), in sixth place of the Eastern League's Southern Division. Erie was represented at the Eastern League All-Star Game by righthanded pitchers Nate Bumstead and Brian Rogers, catcher Mike Rabelo and third baseman Kody Kirkland.

THE BATS: The SeaWolves led the Eastern League with 128 home runs. Kirkland and first baseman Kelly Hunt both tied for third in the league with 22 home runs, while infielder Chris Maples tied for fifth with 20 home runs. Kirkland tied for fourth in the league with 52 extra-base hits. Hunt earned EL Player of the Week honors for June 26-July 2 after hitting .360 (9x25) with six runs scored, three doubles, five home runs and 10 RBI. Maples hit .464 (13x28) with six runs scored, three doubles, two home runs and six RBI in seven games to earn EL Player of the Week honors for August 21-27. Maples finished with a .339 batting average (33x122) in 29 games during August, scoring 16 runs and collecting nine doubles, eight home runs and 25 RBI. Outfielder Jackson Melian was fifth in the league with a .478 slugging percentage.

THE ARMS: Righthanded pitcher Virgil Vasquez tied for the league lead with three complete games, while he was second with 173.2 innings pitched and 10th with a 3.73 ERA. Bumstead tied for the league lead with three complete games, while he was fifth with 158.0 innings pitched. Lefthanded pitcher Ian Ostlund tied for third in the league with 53 appearances.

THE SEASON: Lakeland finished with a 68-68 overall record (.500) during the season, including a 37-32 mark (.536) in the season's first half and a 31-36 record (.463) in the second half of the season. Righthanded pitchers Jeff Hahn and Kevin Whelan, catcher Chris Robinson and outfielder Jeff Frazier represented the Tigers at the Florida State League's All-Star Game held at Joker Marchant Stadium in Lakeland. Frazier belted a two-run home run in the game to earn the "Star of Stars" award.

THE BATS: The Tigers led all Florida State League clubs with 176 stolen bases. First baseman Jeff Larish finished third in the league with 54 extra-base hits, while he was fourth with 76 runs scored and tied for fourth with 34 doubles. Infielder Gilberto Mejia tied for third in the league with seven triples, while shortstop Brent Dlugach tied for fifth with six triples. Outfielder Clete Thomas stole 34 bases for the Tigers, tied for fifth-most in the league. Outfielder Victor Mendez batted .480 (12x25) with six runs scored, two doubles, two home runs and 11 RBI in seven games to earn FSL Player of the Week honors for May 22-28.

THE ARMS: Righthanded pitcher Dallas Trahern led the league with four complete games, while he finished fourth with a 3.30 ERA. Righthanded pitchers Kevin Ardoyn and Andrew Kown both tied for second in the league with two complete games, while Ardoyn was third with 155.1 innings pitched. Ardoyn limited the opposition to an unearned run in 16.0 innings over two starts, winning his only decision to garner FSL Pitcher of the Week honors for May 15-21. Whelan finished third in the league with 27 saves and fourth with 51 appearances. Whelan registered four saves in four outings, fanning eight batters in 3.2 innings to earn FSL Pitcher of the Week honors for April 6-16. Whelan did not allow a run in 12 straight outings June 14-July 18, tossing 12.0 innings. Hahn appeared in 50 games for the Tigers, fifth-most in the league.

WEST MICHIGAN WHITECAPS (A)

THE SEASON: West Michigan captured the Midwest League Championship, finishing with the league's best overall record of 89-48 (.650). The Whitecaps won the Eastern Division in both halves of the season, posting a 41-26 mark (.612) in the first half and a 48-22 record (.686) in the second half. West Michigan defeated Fort Wayne 2-1 in the opening round of the playoffs, before knocking off Lansing 2-0 in the second round. The Whitecaps captured the title by defeating Kane County 3-1 in the finals. Righthanded pitcher Orlando Perdomo, lefthanded pitcher Ramon Garcia and shortstop Michael Hollimon represented the Whitecaps at the league's all-star game. Perdomo, Hollimon and outfielder Cameron Maybin were selected to the league's post-season all-star squad, while Maybin was named the league's prospect of the year and Matt Walbeck was named the manager of the year.

THE BATS: Maybin finished fifth in the Midwest League with a .304 batting average and .387 on-base percentage. Maybin batted .376 (38x101) with 22 runs scored, five doubles, a triple, three home runs, 21 RBI and 11 stolen bases in 27 games during July. Hollimon led the league with 13 triples, while he finished third with 57 extra-base hits and fifth with a .501 slugging percentage. Hollimon established a Whitecaps record with three home runs on July 17 at Beloit. Outfielder Justin Justice finished second in the league with nine triples. Outfielder Matt Joyce finished with 86 RBI, tied for third-most in the league. Outfielder Michael Hernandez was selected the ML Player of the Week twice during the season, June 26-July 2 and July 24-30. Hernandez batted .417 (10x24) with four runs scored, four doubles, three home runs and nine RBI in six games June 26-July 2, while he hit .387 (12x31) with five runs scored, three doubles, a triple, three home runs and 13 RBI in seven games July 24-30. Hernandez hit for the cycle twice for the Whitecaps, doing so on June 8 at Fort Wayne and July 25 versus Peoria. Hernandez established a Whitecaps record with seven RBI on July 29 at Clinton.

THE ARMS: The Whitecaps pitching staff led the league with a 2.96 ERA. Righthanded pitcher Burke Badenhop led all league pitchers with 14 wins and three complete games, while he was second with 171.0 innings and ninth with a 2.84 ERA. Badenhop won both of his starts and posted a 0.75 ERA (12.0IP/1ER) to garner ML Pitcher of the Week honors for August 21-27. Righthanded pitcher Sindy Vasquez tied for third in the league with 13 wins. Vasquez won his final 10 decisions over a 13-start stretch June 25-September 2, posting a 2.29 ERA (74.2IP/19ER). Perdomo registered 28 saves for the Whitecaps, tops among all league pitchers. Garcia tied for the league lead with two shutouts, while he tied for fifth with two complete games. Garcia fired a one-hit shutout against Southwest Michigan on May 23 to earn ML Pitcher of the Week honors for May 22-28. Lefthanded pitcher Erik Averill topped all league pitchers with 171.1 innings pitched. Lefthanded pitcher Luke French was tabbed the ML Pitcher of the Week for July 17-23 after tossing a one-hit shutout versus Dayton on July 21.

ONEONTA TIGERS (A)

THE SEASON: Oneonta finished in second place of the New York-Penn League's Stedler Division with a 40-34 record (.541). Righthanded pitchers Brett Jensen, Matt O'Brien and Derek Witt, shortstop Scott Sizemore, third baseman Ronnie Bourquin and outfielder Brennan Boesch represented the Tigers at the league's all-star game.

THE BATS: Sizemore led the New York-Penn League with 49 runs scored and 96 hits, while he was second with a .327 batting average and fifth with a .394 on-base percentage. Sizemore earned NYPL Player of the Week honors for July 10-16 after hitting .333 (8x24) with four runs scored, a double, a triple, two home runs and 11 RBI in six games. Boesch led the league with 54 RBI, while he was second with 85 hits and tied for fourth with six triples and 26 extra-base hits. Outfielder Brandon Timm tied for second in the league with seven triples, while outfielder Deik Scram tied for fourth with six triples.

THE ARMS: O'Brien tied for second in the league with eight wins. O'Brien earned the win in both of his starts and posted a 1.50 ERA (12.0IP/2ER) to garner NYPL Pitcher of the Week honors for June 26-July 2. O'Brien posted a six-game winning streak for Oneonta July 19-August 14, compiling a 1.36 ERA (39.2IP/6ER). Jensen registered 17 saves for the Tigers, tied for second-most in the league. Witt posted a 21.2-innings scoreless streak over eight outings July 20-August 24.

GULF COAST LEAGUE TIGERS (ROOKIE)

THE SEASON: The GCL Tigers won the Gulf Coast League's North Division with a 32-18 record (.640). The Gulf Coast League Tigers were then defeated in the opening round of the Gulf Coast League playoffs 1-0 by the Gulf Coast League Dodgers. Righthanded pitcher Alfredo Figaro, first baseman Chris Carlson and outfielder Gorkys Hernandez were selected to the league's post-season all-star squad.

THE BATS: Carlson led all Gulf Coast League players with 16 doubles, 11 home runs, 47 RBI, 27 extra-base hits and a .588 slugging percentage, while he was third with a .402 on-base percentage, tied for third with 55 hits and tied for fifth with a .311 batting average. Hernandez won the league's batting title, hitting .327 for the Gulf Coast League Tigers. Hernandez also led the league with 41 runs scored and 67 hits, while he tied for second with 20 stolen bases. Hernandez was selected the GCL Player of the Month for June and July after hitting .338 (46x136) with 29 runs scored, six doubles, a triple, three home runs, 14 RBI and 17 stolen bases in 34 games between the two months. Outfielder Luis Arlet tied for second in the league with 20 stolen bases, while he finished fifth with a .475 slugging percentage, tied for fifth with 33 runs scored and six home runs and finished ninth with a .300 batting average. Outfielder Michael Sullivan tied for fourth in the league with four triples.

THE ARMS: Righthanded pitcher Eleazar Aponte finished fourth in the league with a 1.77 ERA, while righthanded pitcher Matt Righter was eighth with a 2.47 ERA. Righthanded pitchers Jesse Caraballo and Adriano Santos both tied for fifth in the league with 18 appearances. Figaro did not allow a run in his first 16.0 innings of the season June 20-July 21. Righthanded pitcher Duane Below posted a 2-0 record and allowed an unearned run in 23.2 innings over five outings (four starts) during August.

LOWRY REMEMBERED WITH TIGERS MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League post-season berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers minor league system, and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife Pamela and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE TIGERS (ROOKIE)

THE SEASON: The DSL Tigers captured the West Division of the Dominican Summer League with a league-best 48-18 record (.727). The Dominican Summer League Tigers were defeated 2-1 in the opening round of the league's playoffs by the Dominican Summer League Mariners.

THE BATS: Second baseman Jose Constanza finished fourth in the Dominican Summer League with 52 walks, while he tied for fourth with 27 stolen bases and finished fifth with a .434 on-base percentage. Outfielder Jose Cruz finished third in the league with 53 walks.

THE ARMS: The Dominican Summer League Tigers were third among all league clubs with a 2.25 ERA. Righthanded pitcher Luis Marte tied for third in the Dominican Summer League with eight wins and 90 strikeouts, while he tied for fourth with two complete games and tied for seventh with a 1.38 ERA. Righthanded pitcher Santo Mieses tied for third in the league with 90 strikeouts. Righthanded pitcher Wilton Garcia finished second in the league with 18 saves and tied for fourth with 27 appearances.

MILLER, ZIELINSKI EARN MINOR LEAGUE AWARDS

In 1996, two longtime members of the Detroit Tigers organization were recognized nationally for their distinguished service to the game of baseball.

Audrey Zielinski, a veteran of more than 50 years with the Tigers Minor League Department, was named the Rawlings Woman Executive of the Year by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (NAPBL).

Also in 1996, Dave Miller, a longtime member of the Tigers front office, was presented with the TOPPS Award for the long and meritorious service to the game of baseball.

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2007 for their 71st season in Lakeland and their 42nd at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium. The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that will feature luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the Tigertown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and city of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 317-262-12 and 2,601,333 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.
